

AMERICA'S PULPITS ARE DRUNK WITH LOVE

“As goes the pastors so goes the nation”

By Pastor Del Wray

Christians have swallowed the lie “that God hates sin but loves the sinner” that phrase came from Mahatma Gandhi who was the preeminent leader of Indian's independence movement in British-ruled India 1868-1948. And it is not biblical; Jesus never used such an expression nowhere in Scripture. You are probably thinking of John 3:16, which state no such thing. The word translated "world" in that verse “kosmos” never means every individual of mankind who has ever lived. Read John 17:9, Psalms 11:6-7, Romans 9:13 Paul wrote that God hated Esau, and Psalm 5:5 says that God hates all “workers” of iniquity. Or, you may be thinking of "God is love." God unquestionably loves His own, the saved. But He categorically hates the reprobate children of the devil. That's why the saved go to Heaven and the reprobates go to Hell. In Romans 9:13, which says "As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated", Jacob is a representative of God's children, while Esau is a representative of the reprobates. In Romans 1, the word "reprobate" is used to describe Sodomites. Homosexuals, and another name Fags are reprobates. God hates reprobates. God hates fags. God hates sin in any form or fashion. He came into this world to save sinners Luke 19:10 but He refuses to love those who reject or spurn that love. There is one sin in the Bible that damns a soul and that is the continual rejection of the Holy Spirit's wooing and drawing men to Jesus Christ. Anyone who refuses to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ Acts 16:31 and Jesus called it the Unpardonable Sin. Click! Others verses proving God hates Christ rejecting sinners:

My response to those inclined to be Southern Baptist, my friends who wrote saying God loves the whole world, meaning every single person: I appreciate your writing and as our Lord admonishes, "...and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ" 1 Pet. 3:15-16. In answer to your letter my response in this writing is only for your spiritual well being and no other reason. Prov. 27:6 says "Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful." As a faithful servant I have a duty, as do you, to preach against sin. We have faithfully preached on the streets of this condemned nation against all forms of sin, like Christ and the apostles did, every single day for 40 years, "losing our lives" Luke 17:33. You scold me for not helping the poor and needy. Yet, hear the words of the Lord, Amos 8:11 "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord." Preaching the Word of God faithfully every single day to an apostate nation that has utterly forsaken God is feeding the poor and needy. In Luke 4:4 did not Jesus say "And Jesus answered him, saying, it is written: That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God". The standard is to preach to your neighbor so his sins do not take him or her to Hell. "Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him," Lev. 19:17 this is love thy neighbor. God told Isaiah, "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.” Isaiah 58:1

Look at what King David wrote in Psalms “Do not I hate them, O LORD that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.” Psalms 139:21-22

Paul told Timothy in 2 Tim. 4:1-4: “I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.” We have reached that very time Paul spoke of when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts have heaped to themselves teachers having itching ears.

It is required that the people of God make good on that charge to reprove, rebuke and exhort. I come from a long line of preachers in the Bible that preach God’s Word without apology. And that line also includes a line of Baptist preachers, forty in number out of Ireland. One of my cousins still living in Hampton Roads made me aware of that some years back. A few of them came to America after the Great Ejection in England in 1662 “The Act of Uniformity.” This world does not need any more love talk, they are drunk on it. When the land is full of sin, the prophets of God reprove and rebuke like they are supposed to. See Elijah, he reprovved and killed 400 prophets of Baal for their rank idolatry, John the Baptist, reprovved King Herod for his adultery and preached to the Pharisees and Sadducees, “O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?” Matt. 3:7, Stephen, reprovved the Jews in Acts 7:51 “Ye stiff necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost”, Amos, reprovved the King of Israel to the point the land could not bear his words Amos 7:10, Isaiah wrote in Isaiah 1:4 “Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward”, Jeremiah in Jeremiah 5:8-9 “They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbor’s wife. Shall I not visit for these things? Saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?” Ezekiel 16:2 “Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations”, and Hosea in Hos. 5:3-5 “I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled. They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD. And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.” Christ, Paul, Peter and the rest of the apostles died violent, tortuous deaths not because they preached love, everyone loves this, but because they preached with boldness against sin and the truth of God and for that reason they were murdered. Christ says if you are preaching the truth of God the world will hate you. John 15:18-20 “If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, the servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.” The Bible teaches from one end of it to the other that the prophets of God are hated and misused. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy 2Chron. 36:16.

The preachers in this country have absolutely failed in their duty to reprove, rebuke and exhort. We have same-sex marriage in this country because the preachers did not clearly preach the wrath of God about fornication, adultery, and homosexuality when they should have like Paul did for example in Ephesians 5. We fear the preachers of this country have become partakers, Eph. 5:7, of the sins of this country because they have fellowship with them that committed them and were effectively silent. Eph. 5:7-13, “Be not ye therefore partakers with them... And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reprovèd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.” The preachers of this country have excused sin by telling everyone God loves them, and that “God hates the sin and not the sinner.” Which is a lie and not biblical, that expression came from Gandhi and not God, than preaching a clear message that the wrath of God abides on those who engage in such blatant sin. Isaiah 56:10 “His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, and loving to slumber.” You should, today, start preaching like the trumpet sounds, the need for repentance from homosexuality, fornication, adultery and the rest; and that the absolute judgment of God awaits those who fail to repent. These are like the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah that led up to the destruction of Israel at the hands of the Babylonians. Remember the command of God to Ezekiel about the duty to sound the alarm. “But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman’s hand. So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them...” Ezek. 33:6-7. The lack of the preachers to be dutiful watchmen and preach God’s judgment is exactly why the world is waxing worse and worse, and why Christ is coming in judgment.

You say you feed your people, but we fear that there is death in your pot (2Kings 4:40), and that you make them twofold more children of Hell than yourself Matt. 23:15. Your use of 2 Pet. 3:9 to say that God “does not want anyone to perish but all should come to repentance” and therefore God loves, loves, loves, loves everyone is completely out of context, and misused as the Word there is the absolute Wrath of God in Noah’s day where billions perished and the Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ with fire and destruction. Clearly God intended for most to perish in The Flood as only eight souls were saved 1 Pet 3:20! Unfortunately, you left out of your quotation who the “any” is in that verse, it clearly says to “us-ward” not all mankind as you would like the verse to say. 2 Pet 3:6-12. “Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men [where is the love of God here?] ... The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?" Again, that doesn't seem like love, love, love to us ward. If you would like to know more about 2 Pet. 3:9 and to who the "us-ward" is see the famous expositor Arno C. Gaebelin on this verse; you are not even close on your view of this verse. Go back to the words, and read them with distinction, as if it is an important matter that you want to represent accurately, not as if you are a man pleaser determined to swap nonsense for money. Read 2 Peter 1:1 for clarity as to whom Peter is addressing those precious words to.

To summarize your letter, and your communication, you say we do not love enough. The Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Bible is to keep the commandments of God Matt. 19:17 and Deut. 4 and not the commandments of men Matt. 15:9 and to repent or perish Luke 13:3-5. From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand Matt. 4:17. The Lord Jesus Christ is coming in judgment and it is directly tied to the lack of repentance of this world for its sins and for its utter failure to keep the commandments of God. 1John 5:3 says "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous" "And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk; Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts (Rev. 9:20-21).

The Lord Jesus Christ preached about the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and tied it directly to His Second Coming in power and judgment. "Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed... Remember Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it" (Luke 17:28-33). Also, consider this: "And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all." (Luke 17:26-27). Marrying is not a sin, but abusing the marriage covenant is, such as adultery, including, marriage, divorce and remarriage and same-sex marriage. Again, such abuse is tied directly to the Lord Jesus' return in retribution. Yet your letter is completely silent on these topics of Christ's return and these sins. You say we strain out a gnat... This nation and the whole world violates all of the commandments of God daily and the whole world lies in the lap of the wicked one and the preachers mask these awful sins under the guise of preaching love and you call that a gnat. No, that is not a gnat that is the complete forsaking of the commandments of God, which is death and ends in God's curse. Duet. 11:28.

The Lord Jesus Christ came the first time, 2,000 years ago with good news, "to repent or perish" and that salvation through the blood of our dear Lord Jesus Christ is effectual for "whosoever will" the ones who have been born again and ordained unto eternal life by the marvelous grace of a sovereign God Acts 13:48. He is coming the second time in judgment. "The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.” 2 Thess. 1:7. Like John the Baptist, we lay the axe to the root of the tree. Christ is coming in vengeance and with punishment on his mind. Ditto!

And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him...” Jude 14-17. Again, Christ is coming to execute judgment and not to save. Remember, Luke 17:29-30? But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. There were three people saved at Sodom and eight saved on the ark. There was not much repenting going on in those days, right before that judgment. And, there isn't much now either. Why don't you start focusing on the end of the New Testament and the coming of Christ and His destruction? We realize that is not popular to this apostate nation, and you will in fact be hated for it and suffer greatly for it; but it is the truth. If you would read the end of the Bible you would see that “The Revelation of Jesus Christ” has a bad ending for this world. The world is de-created with death everywhere and its natural resources destroyed. “Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat.” 2Pet.3:12.

Your theology includes the lie that “God loves everyone.” It permeates your letter and all Southern Baptists. It is an uncontroverted fact that the phrase “God loves everyone” appears zero times in the Bible; and in fact God does hate all those He sends to hell. God hates all workers of iniquity Psalm 5:5. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated Rom. 9:13. “For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.” Rom. 9:17-18.

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” John 3:36. If the wrath of God abides on you, that is not love.

Unfortunately, the churches of this country are lukewarm, which thing Christ hates. Revelation 3:15-16 says “I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.”

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.” Eph 6:10. The preachers appear to speak frothiness and lies Jer. 23:32 and preach smooth things instead of right things Isaiah 30:10. Meanwhile, this world has murdered a billion babies through abortion; fornication is everywhere, adultery, including marriage, divorce and remarriage, is the norm, sodomy is accepted as a perfectly acceptable alternative life style; Sodomites marry in spite of God's command at the Garden of Eden that marriage is between male and female as quoted by Christ in Mat. 19:4-6; idolatry, which thing God hates is everywhere around you; alcohol and drug use are a plague over this nation and this world; war and murder is exported across the globe as good business, covetousness, greed and stealing are rampant and fully accepted as normal.

“Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”
Luke 13:23-24 I pray you will enter in at the straight and narrow gate and not follow the broad way and use the wide gate. I fear many of you are on. Once I too was a Southern Baptist and was forced to leave their ranks because of the blatant apostasy that controls its fellowship. Jesus warns us to “Come out from among them” “and be ye separate”.

America was once a great nation, No more! Her laws have damned her. In 1964 when the Civil Rights Act was passed integrating schools, she voted to turn her back on God. When abortion was legalized she added another vote against God. Passing laws in support of sodomy in this country, legalizing homosexuality, queers, lesbians, faggots, dykes and transvestites was a vote to commit suicide. Gay marriages, same sex marriages and sponsoring of sodomites parading all over this country was a termination vote. Mixing the races has speeded up the end! Electing a black man to lead this country and next the possibility or even the thought of having a woman as president is an open invitation for destruction. Affirmative Action an even bigger curse is a vote in the wrong direction. The hate crime laws have sentenced this country to death. A country that throws God out and replaces Him with more wicked, vile laws has cemented its own fate! “The nation that forgets God is turned into Hell.”

In closing my purpose in this response and putting pen to writing is to alienate, permanently, every fence-straddling, man-pleasing, man-following, pseudo-intellectual Nicolaitane Fundamentalist and Southern Baptist that thinks he can mess with my mother’s Bible by either trying to correct it either through many of the false bibles that are being published on the market today or by trying to weaken, water down, dilute and adulterate the Book my mother handed down to me, through their passive, halfhearted, indifferent teaching and preaching as is rampant in our pulpits across America and that goes for Charles Staley and others I could name. Don’t mess with my Mama’s Bible! Those who do will be named and called out and exposed publically with every breath I have and with every word I can write until they put this body in the ground. That Bible God used to save my never dying soul. It was the Book that God gave to me personally; it was the kiss of God on my poor lost soul. Don’t mess with my King James Bible or I’ll mess with you. My critics may be many; you good folks among them, I have nothing personal against any of you including my most malicious and spiteful critics. I’ll never take issue with anyone unless he messes with my Bible. America has chosen the path to war with God and it is headed to Hell. There is a saying “As goes the pastors so goes the nation” And the pastors I’m afraid have aided in the down fall of this country. America’s pulpits are intoxicated with love. WARNING

America’s pulpits are drunk with love.
