America is suffering from a left undone disease called "Omission" failure to obey God! Israel is suffering from the same disease; they didn't wipe out the nations God told them to. Now both countries and the world are reaping the consequences. Muslim terrorists and Sodomites loose everywhere raping and killing American citizens. History repeating itself; America's enemies are being used to judge her.

Should homosexuals be put to death by the proper authority?

"If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them." Leviticus 20:13

By Pastor Del Wray

We find that not only does God stipulate death for individuals who are homosexuals but He also commanded the destruction of whole nations for their adulterous and abominable sodomite lifestyles. For many years now, and with great success, the cultural establishment has been pushing the normalization of the sodomite life style. Now it's taught in government schools as the alternate lifestyle and being normal. Parents are being threatened with arrest if they protest and even jailed or large fines. We have now gotten to the point where sodomites are being allowed to "marry," and the normalization of homosexuality, with the related marginalization of biblical Christianity, continues at a ferocious pace. Bible believing Baptist churches and other Christian sects need to stand up against this onslaught of normality and so called sodomite "marriage," queers are normal, how repulsive! Haven't we, too, been influenced by the cultural pressure for the normalization of homosexuality? The church is afraid to come out against this lowlife for fear of being cast as hate mongers, fear of being accused of using hate speech, afraid of going to jail breaking some hate crime law. Baptist people have always lived under threats of persecution for doing what God commanded rather than live under tyrants. "Courage is knowing the consequences and doing the right thing anyway," Dr. Peter S. Ruckman. Baptist's are not reactionists they're not known for being vengeful!

Yes, that's true, we must admit! As Baptists' you can find nowhere in history that Baptist have harmed anyone. In fact because of their lifestyles Baptist people through all the ages have demonstrated the rule of compassion for everyone. On the other hand it is the Baptist people that have suffered persecution more than any other sect. Baptist people stand against retaliation or being vindictive to others except where the Bible commands it! I personally only have indignation for the sodomite and godly hatred for every one of them, as exemplified by God Himself in Scripture. No one reads their Bibles anymore, so how should they know? Right! Even the ones that are reading their Bibles won't believe what they read! Baptist would not show wrong to anyone except where it came to the defense of themselves, their families, defense of their property and little innocent children facing rape by these sub-human, slimy night crawling, out of the closet, blood sucking, vermin that need to be sent scurrying back to their holes in the sewer. I read yesterday how some judge had granted custody of nine boys to two queers who had recently married and already they were on trial for raping five of those boys. Death is the only appropriate sentence for those two men. I'm in no way promoting vigilantism on homosexuals! That's the legal authority's job! I'm for life! No one wants to see anyone die unless it is the only deterrent to further death and wrong doing. It seems to me that the Sodomites are doing a good job at killing themselves with all the diseases that are common: Genital Warts, Gonorrhea, Hepatitis B, Herpes, HIV & AIDS, Human Papilloma virus-HPV, Pubic Lice-Crabs, Scabies and Syphilis to name a few. The responsibility of the preacher is to WARN the homosexuals of their grave sinful lifestyles and nothing more. If any change is to take place in their lives it will be between them and the Holy Spirit. This is true in every believers life, his job is to be a warning to the sodomites whom God has "given up," whom God has "turned over to a reprobate existence" doing anything else is treason against God! He does not tell you to try and show them love they're queers, no queer will be drawn by your kindness, they hate God and they hate God's people. In history past God offered them His love and they spurned that love and went deeper into their abomination so God gave them up to a reprobate mind. There's a big difference between a queer and a normal lost person. I extend love to a lost man but not to the sodomite! I avoid them entirely! Of course you know more than God, don't you? Who ever told you sinners are going to like you! Sinners don't like God's people. They're not supposed too! Not until Jesus makes His abode in their hearts.

The church and their programs have damned more souls than anything else in history. Man's methods never have worked and have only pushed souls further into Hell. You say how? Through "easy Believism," preaching a cost-less gospel, a cross-less gospel. It cost God His only begotten Son by way of an old rugged cross. Bloody pulpits! Sin-free preaching zones! Pastors have been Spirit-less with blood all over their hands failing to rescue the perishing. Preaching blood-less messages! That's how! Preaching is the only method God has prescribed, God approved! And Pastors for the most part have made a mess of it! But to my brothers out there, who are still allowing Jesus Christ to preach through them, preach on! Preach brothers! Some may remember way back when Bob Jones, Sr. called preacher boys from the auditorium and had them preach impromptu messages to the student body during Chapel. He called me and I'll never forget what he said. He knew I was hesitant, so he whispered to me in front of over four hundred students, "Preach as if you are in the presence of Jesus Christ." I'll never forget it. You know he was right, because Jesus Christ is the ONE doing the preaching. If not its sin! Let's keep on keeping on letting Jesus Christ preach through each of us! Preach it men! Godly love will never tolerate and condone homosexuality!

GODLY LOVE WILL NEVER TOLERATE AND CONDONE HOMOSEXUALITY:

Judah was condemned during the time of Rehoboam, because:

"There were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel." 1 Kings 14:24.

Once again we can see one of the principle reasons why God ordered the wholesale destruction of certain peoples and nations. God knew what he was doing, and He violated none of His attributes or laws in destroying them. His love, holiness and righteousness are vindicated by His judgments. Godly love will never tolerate and condone homosexuality!

Let me begin by stating; first of all that I am against Religious theologians, against Presbyterian theology, against the Roman Catholic Church, Calvin's Geneva Conventions and Denominationalism as a whole. For most I'm against focusing on politics instead of gospel preaching. I am for Bible preaching, for the local New Testament Baptist Church, for dispensationalism, for freedom of religion, liberty of conscience and the preaching of the whole Word of God with its pure unadulterated gospel of the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ to every creature as my primary goal. Fully aware that our government hates God!

The writer of this article is not some ill tempered preacher lost in the jungle of homophobia but a man filled with indignation and a deep hatred for what God hates and God hates homosexuals. In fact, if you who read this treaty don't like what the following paragraphs say, before you tell someone that I don't love people, you ought to consider how much time you actually spend telling other people about their need of the Saviour. How much time do you spend giving people the gospel? Perhaps, this poor old preacher may be the one who loves souls, and you could be the one that hates people. God knows what will happen if the homosexuals are left to themselves and not punished. They will pollute the land, molest your innocent love ones and destroy the country.

Now there is no reason why God's laws passed down from Israel declaring the States responsibility to put Sodomites to death are not suitable for our day. God's laws are the foundation on which every one of man's laws in society today was founded, the basic building blocks created for the well being of society, righteous laws for the protection of its citizenry. Being so what does the Bible say the responsibility of the State is toward those who engage in homosexuality? I know the government has thrown the Bible out and legalized queerdom, but it is coming back to haunt us already.

"If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them." Leviticus 20:13

It thrills me when someone in trouble comes to me for help not because of the trouble they're in but it gives me a chance to share with them the Word of God. The State should punish trouble makers. It grieves me to have to preach to killers, whether in prison or elsewhere, but I still agree with Scripture that murderers should be executed by the State.

The State should enforce death penalty laws especially for sodomy. We should want a godly government that takes away the sodomites out of the land, as godly governments did in Old Testament times. 1 Kings 15:12; 1 Kings 22:46. The Passover and other ceremonial laws are types of Christ which have been abolished, but the death penalty for sodomy that God gave Israel is the law and not a type of anything and has not been abolished. God's law hasn't been done away with it was fulfilled for us, it is valid today. How would we have known which laws would be just for the State to carry out if they had not been handed down to us in the Bible? Can we not learn from history? Or are we as the proverb, "man never learns from history." Do we have to suffer the same fate?

In addition, before the Mosaic Law, Scripture states that among those alive before the law, gentiles such as Job, adultery was “a heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges” Job 31:11? If adultery is righteously punished by a gentile State, is not the greater sin of sodomy also? Scripture does not teach that the criminalization of sexual iniquities such as sodomy and adultery are things that the State should just ignore. They should be crimes, and held accountable to the standard laid out by God and punishable in the same way as the Bible clearly states. This and this alone would go a long way in cleaning up America and returning it to God.

Since both Jews and gentiles in Scripture recognized that sexual sins were biblically described as criminal and worthy of death, it would be excellent for America to enforce these laws. Were biblical standards practiced, as they won't be in the USA, before the Rapture, unless there is a great awakening, the death penalty for sodomy would prevent a lot of crime. The death penalty for sodomy would result in far fewer people deciding they were “born that way,” hardening their hearts to the gospel message, and causing premature deaths from HIV and AIDS. The death penalty for Sodomites would be the ticket.

To reiterate, I am not at all arguing for people being vigilantes or taking the law into their own hands. The individual Christian's duty is to demonstrate by bearing the testimony of Jesus Christ to a lost dying world. It is the State's responsibility to re-criminalize sodomy and enforce the death penalty for those that commit such vile, degrading life styles under the due process of law.

I would also like to point out that if what I have written here seems “extreme” or “bigoted” or “narrow minded” and you cannot prove differently from Scripture, you may be being influenced by the culture of our day and its incessant drumbeat for the normalization of Sodomy. You are complicit, if you can't refute this article biblically, and not willing to agree with it.

If you think that what I have written is true, but it ought not to be preached because people won't like it, you also have been influenced by our evil culture. While our country descends ever further into the pit of hell, let the Lord's true churches pass down all the truth and reject all unbiblical cultural influences. It might cost you something. It is still okay to believe that marriage is between one man and one woman, but if you agree with what I'm saying here, and people at work find out, you might lose your job. Nevertheless, Bible-believing churches need to recognize and unashamedly preach and teach all the truths in the Bible, both those that pertain to the individual's responsibility to do good and act kindly towards all believers and especially to the unsaved world around you being careful not to “cast your pearls before swine,” before homosexuals. It is the State's responsibility to execute those found guilty of sodomy, after due process of law for their disgusting perversion. The States failure only brings down God's righteous judgment on a people that allows the State to rule in such fashion.

WHY GOD COMMANDED NATIONS TO BE DESTROYED!

Israel was told to destroy certain nations that dwelt in the land of Canaan. This is found a number of times in Deuteronomy and Joshua. It is clear that Israel not only was told to do this, but God also said that He would do it. Many of our local Baptist Churches can be found condoning the sodomite's life style under the pretense of loving everybody. God never told you to love everybody. Humanist preachers of our day do not believe that God told Israel to destroy queers and rag-head Muslims. They're denying God and accusing Him of lying! They do not deny that it is found in the Bible, but they deny that God said it. They prefer to believe that the writers simply made it up to cover their cruelties to the inhabitants of the land. The Bible believer must take an entirely different approach and come out against these God hating vermin! Let the Bible speak. In Deuteronomy 7:1, seven nations are named and in 7:2, Israel is commanded:

"And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them." "And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee... LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them..." Deuteronomy 7:22-23.

A careful study will reveal WHY God ordered whole nations to be destroyed by the Israelites. God warned Israel concerning a long list of sins, including incest, adultery, having sex with animals and homosexuality.

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind..." "Neither shalt thou lie with any beast..." "Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you..." "The land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants." Leviticus 18:22-25.

Man is forbidden to "lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman," and

"ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them." Leviticus 20:13-23.

Judah was condemned during the time of Rehoboam, because

Once again we are shown one of the principle reasons why God ordered the wholesale death and destruction of certain nations. God knew what he was doing, and He violated none of His attributes or laws in destroying them. His love, holiness and righteousness are vindicated by His judgments. Godly love will never tolerate and condone homosexuality!
