

WE'VE LOST THE VIRTUE OF RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION

By Pastor Del Wray

Treason committed by our political leaders and church pastors.

Nowhere, at any time nor for any purpose, are Christians given the option to compromise with evil or evil men, in any manner. It has never worked out to the advantage of individuals or nations in over 6,000 years of recorded history.

Probably one of the most debilitating diseases in America today is the manner in which professing Christians compromise with evil and evil men, for a little temporary safety or comfort. Most Christians prefer to be "middle-of-the-roaders," without realizing that this is the most dangerous place on the road for they will be hit from both directions. Also, this is where you will find a yellow streak" and where you can locate all the dead skunks in the morning.

In recent years, most Americans have lost the virtue of righteous indignation which is the ability to recognize right from wrong, and then do something to correct the wrong when recognized. Instead, the average Christian wants to be like everyone else, good and bad alike, and completely reject the words of James 4:4.

"...know ye not that the friendship of the world (order) is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world (order) is the enemy of God."

That's pretty plain and uncompromising, isn't it? That's why very few Christians want to accept it it's too narrow minded for them.

There are many church groups in America who have injected their Judeo-Christian theology of "compromise with God's enemy" into our national life. This is why, over the last fifty years or so, we have aided our enemies, and stabbed ourselves and our friends in the back.

U.S. Catholic Bishops have injected leftist ideology into the debate on national defense since 1983, although the majority of Catholic laymen reject it, I believe. Actually, 13 major religious groups in the United States have pressured Congress to seek detente with the Communist world at any cost even though they know this enemy has promised to "bury us" and destroy Christianity.

Some of these religious groups are: The American Baptist Church, Church of the Brethren Episcopal Church Jesuit Social Ministries Mennonite Central Committee The National Council of Churches The National Council of Religious Women Network (a Catholic Social Justice Lobby) Unitarian Universalist Association of Churches in North America United Church of Christ United Methodist Church (Board of Church and Society, Women's Division) United Methodist Church Council of Religious Women and many others.

This is but the tip of the iceberg. Multiply those by millions of evangelical and fundamentalist Christians who have been brainwashed into supporting the anti-Christ, Zionist Jews at any cost and you can understand why we see the huge peace rallies in Washington, D.C. These rallies are not spontaneous at all, but are prompted by our enemies and their religious friends in the so-called Christian world.

Even many conservative Christians who believe in the principles of Constitutional Government and one government, under God, have been led astray by their religious leaders who are determined to stand behind international Judaism regardless of Judaism's terrorist, manipulatory and heinous acts.

Have you ever wondered what the Good Samaritan of Luke 10:33 would have done if he had come by when the victim was being beaten and robbed? I sincerely doubt that he would have stood by as a spectator as many of our Christians do today. "Oh, brother Wray, Christ wouldn't want us to be violent."

Yet it seems to me He was rather violent when He made a whip of ropes and drove the unscrupulous money changers out of His Father's Temple John 2:15-16.

Jesus was discussing common sense theology when He stated in Luke 11:21-22: When a strong man armed keepeth his palace (home), his goods are in peace (safe): But when a stronger than he (a criminal, whether of the regular stripe or a government criminal) shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour (gun control) ... and divideth his spoils.

In other words, if you are not armed, you can be overtaken and robbed. There is little doubt in my mind that many sincere supporters of peace at any price are well-intentioned, no matter how naive or misinformed they may be. But the sad thing is that most of them are afraid of learning the truth and they become like the Christians at Galatia to whom the Apostle Paul once said in Galatians 4:16: Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

Unfortunately, many of our political and religious leaders know exactly what they are doing, and these are the subversive traitors who are willing to sell America down the river for a little temporary safety, public recognition and money. They are more interested in what they can get for the moment, than in fulfilling the oath they have taken to support our Constitution and our people from ALL enemies, both from within and from without. They want to feather their own nest even if it means abandoning you and I to a heartless enemy. If you look closely at every major foreign policy President Bush has been engaged in, you will find behind them the financial interests of his family. In Panama, in Bahrain, in the Golden Triangle of Southeast Asia, (Which has been proven thorough sworn testimony by Lt. Col. James "Bo" Gritz, who has been in contact with top dope producers in the Golden Triangle) and now in Red China. In all of these areas the Bush family holds billions of dollars in business deals.

These men want to align themselves with the world Talmudists Jews whom they believe have the money and the power to handle any problem that comes along.

About now, some fundamentalist may come along and say: "Slow down a bit, Pastor Wray, our church teaches that Jesus is the answer!" I'll not argue with you about that, for He MUST be first. But the message of salvation goes much deeper than "ye MUST be born again." That is just the first step to becoming a Christian and walking the Christian experience. What good is your faith if it is not backed by your actions? The Apostle James realized this when he wrote in James 2:14-18: What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man (or woman) say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. This is a lesson a lot of Christians need to learn.

The enemy within who has become contaminated by the Jewish poison is a thousand times more dangerous to the cause of Christ than the Talmudic enemies themselves. Jesus said in Matthew 23:15:

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

Don't become angry with me, it was King Jesus who said that.

The great Roman Senator and statesman Marcus Tullius Cicero (106-43 B.C.) put it this way:

A nation can survive its fools, and even its ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and carries his banners openly. But a traitor moves among those within the gates freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears no traitor! He wears their face and garments and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of the nation; he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of the city; he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist; a murderer is less to be feared.

Following the definition of "treason," we find in the U.S. Constitution, Article III, Section 3, the following:

Treason shall consist only in levying war against them (the U.S.), adhering to their enemies, giving them AID AND COMFORT.

Any fifth grader can understand those words. If the actions of our President and Congress are not treason, then I fail to understand the meaning of the English language.

There are a multitude of men in Washington, D.C., in our State Houses, and in the pulpits of our churches who are guilty of this heinous crime against our people. A hundred years ago, a justifiably angry population would have accused them openly, and they would have been tried in a court of law and executed as the traitors they are. But today, they are the big names in government and church.

The defense of Christianity and Christian freedom, my friend, will require sacrifice and the continuing actions of those Christians who love God and care for the future of America. Christians must be in the forefront of this movement to bring America back to God, for they have the most to lose if the Babylonian Talmudic Jewish enemy is successful.

Many American Christians are coming under severe attack today because of pressure to destroy the Second Amendment. Under no circumstance must we allow this to happen. They are being led for the most part by Talmudists Jews, (such as Senator Howard Metzenbaum of Ohio who is trying desperately to paint all gun owners as bad while they express sympathy for the criminal). A good deal of this pressure is coming from church groups who should know better.

A few years ago when I was preaching in the state of Virginia, a full page ad which had been sponsored by 14 prominent Protestant churches, appeared in their local newspaper, the Daily Press, if I remember correctly. It asked that church members turn in their firearms at a church service, on a certain day, where they were to be melted down to make a statue of a famous American compromiser. (It may have been Saint Martin Luther King, Jr., I don't remember.) It went into some detail regarding how decent Christians would certainly turn in their "death-dealing weapons" at the church service.

The Monday issue of The Daily Press rather ruefully stated that only eight guns had been turned in at 14 services the day before, which means that some of the Christians in that wicked city had at least some perspective of what was happening. Personally, I sort of like this idea for I believe that anyone who would be stupid enough to turn in their guns at the request of some pacifist Pastor is too dangerous to be allowed to own one.

There is nothing inherently bad about a sword. The quality of sharpened steel may depend on whether it is in the hands of a surgeon or a bandit. The same goes for a firearm. There is nothing inherently evil in a firearm, and I am convinced that you cannot trust a government who will not trust its citizens with a means of self-defense.

If guns are only in the hands of evil men, then the only peace the lamb will have with the lion is when it ends up in the lion's belly. There are evil men who label disarmament as peace, but it is the peace of slavery and death. 1 Thess. 5:3 warns us about those who: "... when they say peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them ..." and they shall not escape. This is the peace of International Jewish Talmudism.

If America does not remain free, there will be no one left to carry out the "Great Commission" of Jesus Christ," for one of the avowed aims of the Jewish Talmudists is to eliminate Christian civilization from the face of the earth.
