

WHITE MAN'S LAMENT

www.saveyourheritage.com

First they came for Jesus Christ, and I did not speak out -- because "for fear of the Jews no one spoke openly of Him." (John 7:13)

Next they came for His followers, putting them in dungeons, throwing them to wild beasts, nailing them to crosses or setting them aflame, using them as human torches when daylight faded, and I did not speak out -- because they might confuse me with the condemned and I would suffer the same fate.

Then they came for White Christians, selling them into faraway lands to be the slaves of Arabs and others, sometimes for sex, both male and female, and I did not speak out -- because I managed to bribe the Jewish slave trader to save myself and my family.

Then they came for my ancestral lands that had been in my family for centuries, giving them to Lords and Dukes who had a better pedigree, and I did not speak out -- because I was not a farmer.

Then they came for the government of my new land, changing it, perverting it into something my founding fathers would be ashamed of, and I did not speak out -- because I was not a politician.

Then they came for my people, organizing their own crime syndicates to sell narcotics and booze, opening casinos and gambling houses to trap millions of my people in addiction, and I did not speak out -- because I was not addicted.

Then they came for the men of my country, using my own Constitution as their shield to print the most perverse pornography, making films of little children for their own sick pleasure, trapping men in a degrading cycle of addiction and ruining families, and I did not speak out -- because I was sickened and ashamed.

Then they came for the women of my country, convincing mothers that to truly be fulfilled they needed to "have it all" and establish a career, sending millions of children into day care to be raised by people who didn't really care, and I did not speak out -- because I liked the extra pay check.

Then they came for my Race, decrying the overpopulation of the planet and the "expense" of raising children, convincing responsible White families that two children are enough and is the "responsible" way to go, and I did not speak out -- because I didn't have to sacrifice as much if I only raised two children.

Then they came for my country, opening the flood gates of immigration to peoples my founders and ancestors never intended be allowed in my country, and I did not speak out -- because I was not an immigration official.

Then they came for my country again, changing the very foundations it was based on, removing the Ten Commandments from public places all over my nation, and I did not speak out -- because I could teach God in my home.

Then they came for my brothers, the Germans, twisting the truth of their history, using the power of Jewish propaganda called the "Free Press" to convince the world that a Holocaust had occurred, trumpeting the lie that Germans are evil incarnate, and if you disagree with their "truth", you're anti-something, and I did not speak out -- because I was not German.

Then they came for my children, removing God from school, teaching evolution and changing the curriculum to reflect a new, twisted Heritage than the one my ancestors gave me, including a new view on history, and I did not speak out -- because I was not a professional educator.

Then they came for my values, preaching free love, inter-racial mixing, dope smoking and various forms of music which eventually led to hip hop and rap, and I did not speak out -- because maybe I was just a bit old fashioned and needed to "lighten up."

Then they came for my Heritage, instituting affirmative action programs and racial set-asides to combat generations of my ancestor's "racist" attitudes, and I did not speak out -- because maybe they were right and I really was too ignorant to know their truth.

Then they came for my Race and family, yet again using my own Constitution to their advantage making movie after movie filled with violence and sex, and TV show after TV show portraying White Christians as stupid, bumbling idiots who are racist, bigoted or ignorant and men and fathers who are out of touch fools, and I did not speak out -- because I didn't have to go to the movies and I could just switch the TV channel.

Then they really came after my Race, attacking our unborn children, ripping them from their mother's wombs before they had a chance at life, and I did not speak out -- because it was the law, and "choice."

Then they came for my religion, adding a hyphen and calling it "Judeo" Christianity, changing the very foundations of why Christ died, and I did not speak out -- because I was not a theologian.

Then they came for my church, twisting scripture to suit their liberal agenda, claiming homosexuality is from God, even ordaining gay clergy! "Proclaiming love for everyone." Yet I did not speak out -- because I was not a biblical scholar.

Then they came for my family again, saying "alternative" lifestyles are "healthy" and okay, allowing homosexuals to adopt the innocent and even helping them with fertility clinics to have children of their own, and I did not speak out -- because I was not a family therapist.

Then they came for my job, sending it to China and me into the unemployment line wondering how I would feed my "traditional" family, and I did not speak out -- because they gave me a monthly check.

Then they came for my bank account, wiping out my savings and retirement with one swift computer click, and I did not speak out -- because I was warm and dry and fed and they promised that it would "bounce" back.

Then they came for men such as Ernst Zundel, David Irving, Paul Rassinier, Dr. Fredrick Tobin, Dr. Robert Faurisson, Fred Leuchter, Dr. David Duke, Gumar Rudolf and many, many more, putting some of them in prison, ruining the lives and careers of many others for having the courage to stand up for truth and proclaim a different view on history than the established, "enlightened" people, and I did not speak out -- because I was told they "deserved" everything they got.

And finally, the Jewish-run establishment came for me, the last White man left. I looked around at the multi-cultural, Judeo-Christian, inclusive society surrounding me, a society that preached tolerance, free love, peace on earth, love for all mankind, and "if it feels good, do it".

"Help me!", I cried out, "You, who promised freedom and tolerance." They looked at me with hatred, distain and disgust -- and no one spoke up for me, the last White man. By L. R. O.
