

YOU'VE BEEN LIED TO

America you've Been Lied To

Written here is a critical re-examination of presumed historical facts and existing historiography. America you've been lied too, history has been a lie and has become the engine of man's demise. Corrupt beliefs have become the truth.

“Mainstream History is Entirely False”

What we're up against is bigger than any country. In fact, it's bigger than all the countries in the world.

The ruthless powers that be have decided that only they can declare what is true and that it is against the law to disagree with them. The human mind is being locked up for the final time.

Amazon, Google, and Facebook are all Jewish entities, and all prohibit objective discussion about the lies told about the World Wars. Utterances that describe the events of World War II that are not approved by the Jews are now called “hate crimes”.

Jews most definitely cannot prove what they say about WWII — but we can. Six million! Baloney! 296,081 is Germar Rudolf's 2003 count, following the International Red Cross count in October 1980 of 273,905. How many billions of dollars have the Jews stolen from the world with this falsehood they have inflicted on everyone with their incessant and fallacious media propaganda?

Think about the 66 million, mostly Christians, that the Bolshevik Jews murdered in Russia from 1917-1957.

Jews can't prove there were gas chambers at Auschwitz or anywhere else. The thousands of hysterical Jewish testimonies about concentration camp horrors remain totally refuted by the International Red Cross visits during the war which found German treatment of prisoners far superior to the way Americans treated the Japanese prisoners they interned during WW II.

Think about why Ursula Haverbeck, age 89, would risk prison to tell the real story of WW II, in which three Jewish controlled countries, Britain, the USSR, and the USA conspired to eliminate the last viable challenger to Jewish financial control of the world, which was the German economic miracle devised and deployed by Adolf Hitler. Would Mrs. Haverbeck do this because she was insane, or because she was telling the truth?

It is even more puzzling, why would the German government insist on jailing an old woman who questioned a simple detail of history unless they were trying to cover up a gigantic lie? For those with eyes to see, the answer is clear.

Think too about Saddam Hussein and Muammar Gadhafi, both of whom treated their citizens much more kindly than the Jewish-run countries of the West. They followed Hitler's example of treating their own people well. And they were murdered by the Jewish Deep State using their favorite weapon, the American war machine.

Most Americans simply have not realized that all contemporary media, movies, music, TV, even books are controlled by Jews. Those outlets not owned by Jews are statistically insignificant and generally ignored.

But now, the Jewish onslaught of trying to erase independent thought from the world has intensified. A whole category of history has been expunged by the Jews from all the electronic media they own, which is practically everything.

And honest people are being lined up for incarceration and silence so the Jews may more easily make their fabricated history become the de facto history of the world.

Imprisoned by lies

Everyone in the world is now prevented by financial blackmail from even contemplating the truth. Jews control all your money, no matter how many non-Jewish intermediaries exist between you and them.

Even as you read this, the vise grips clamped around your head begin to tighten.

Play ball and you have nothing to worry about. Blow the whistle on these child-eating maniacs and you're going down hard. They'll kill your children.

A Congressman whose questions were a little too sharp just resigned because of that threat. Remember what happened to Paul Wellstone.

Revisionists tend to be idealists. They observe objectively. What they write tends to be clear. They don't make things up unlike the purveyors of the lies they seek to revise.

I'm like everybody else. I believed the propaganda I heard most of my life (or at least since the late 1960s). Took me to middle age to be jarred into realizing I believed in some obvious lies.

What if telling the truth will cost you your job? What if your wife and family call you a beast and throw you out of the house for harboring such horrendous ideas?

Jews own your soul because they own your money and also have the ability to take it all away from you at any time.

They want you to be afraid, to tell the truth. As a replacement, they want you to believe their truth, which is invariably at variance with what actually happened.

Both World Wars, 9/11, the fouling of the sky with chemtrails, the poisoning of humanity with Glyphosate, and the capture of the world's media, these are all Jew poisons you ingest daily.

God help you if you start telling people that Adolf Hitler was actually the good guy. It won't matter to them that it happens to be the truth, because they're so scared of what will happen to them should they choose to stop living their lie.

Mainstream history is entirely false

In case you don't know by now, the Jewish truth is an oxymoron. There is no such thing existing in the world. The Jews' holiest books command Jews to lie to non-Jews in all situations. Now they've swindled the money of every country in the world, which all dance to the puppet's tune while their leaders steal most of the money.

The penetration of Jewish lies in the world mind is nearly complete. Most of what people have been tricked into believing is false.

Regarding the empirical facts of World War II, we can prove what we say and they can't. They can only cast aspersions, trap you in blackmail, or if all else fails, hire some hungry poor person with sociopathic tendencies to murder you. If your offense is somewhat less bothersome, they use the courts, the law, the legal profession, the cops, and the TV stations which will tell everyone what a bad person you are because you disagree with the Jews.

In the European Union courts, when it comes to Holocaust disputation, they say the truth is no defense. They put you in jail merely for attempting to tell the truth.

How silly is that? Pick an adjective. Insane would be a good one.

Jewish scripture urges Jews "to kill the best Gentiles", which they do, constantly.

A game we can't win

The measure of Jewish control of Britain was amply demonstrated by the arrest and continuing harassment of singer Alison Chabloz. This self-appointed Jew organization had to browbeat the government four times before charges were finally pressed. She could have lampooned any other ethnic group and no one would have lifted an eyebrow.

And then they staged this phony arrest of Tommy Robinson supposedly protesting the Muslim rape epidemic to make sure Alison got no media coverage. (By the way, why have British authorities allowed the Muslim rape epidemic to continue for more than ten years?)

We're playing a Jewish game with the media, and it's a game we can't win.

Jez Turner was put in jail for worse. He described Jewish control of British history perfectly and got slammed into jail during a particularly fruitful roundup of Revisionist activists.

Now the Schaefer's are in jail and Arthur Topham, who had been devoutly monitoring the daily status of the recently arrested, remains silent.

And this is what these anti-Semitism laws are all about: to prevent discussion of Jewish crimes.

Jewish soldiers kill Palestinians for fun. Jewish food producers poison Americans by the millions. Jewish drug manufacturers have addicted the whole world to their poison pills.

All Jews are sociopaths because they follow the insane commands of the Talmud. Jews are not allowed to report crimes by their fellow Jews. How can they be good citizens anywhere?

They have turned America into a sociopathic country, using the promotion of blacks to retard the culture of whites.

People are being lied to. The U.S. is the chief force for evil in the world, mostly because they are doing the bidding of rich Jews who control the world's money supply.

Besides Israel and the Jews in the City of London, I defy you to tell me another power in the world that can make the U.S. military go anywhere in the world and murder those they are ordered to eliminate.

Mindless obedience to murderous policies

Tell the truth and go to jail! It's the new party toast. Everything has been reversed. Leave those child molesters alone; they're the ones in charge of the world.

How in the world is anyone supposed to deal with a legal system that declares the truth is no defense. What would Thomas Jefferson say about that?

Everything has been reversed. The good people are being put in jail. The bad people are making the laws.

So that the freedom of speech and thought once guaranteed to all Americans are no longer in effect. Today, we can no longer criticize Jews for their manic criminality that negatively affects everybody on Earth.

We will be arrested if we do. But if we don't the future promises only mindless obedience to murderous policies from which we may never be able to protect ourselves.

Refuse to Believe the Lies the Jewish-Programmed Media "Monsters" want you to believe!

It is no more anti-Semitic to expose Jewish Zionist gangsters than it is anti-Italian to expose the Mafia. The Sicilian Mafia and the Jewish Zionist Cabal is basically the same sort of organizations built on tribal loyalty, tribal cronyism, murderous ruthlessness, and secrecy to advance their criminal designs.

The true criminals have to be exposed to the majority...

Are you afraid to tell the truth? You ought to be: Offend the Jews and your future is in jeopardy.

How ironic that the group known as the world's greatest liars now control the entire world's media?

Recognizing 'something above your own nature' helps detoxify the lies you've been told.

No doubt if you have studied history beyond the mainstream abortion of it, you have had occasion to tell certain people something they simply refuse to believe, because it goes against what they've learned in their lifetimes through schools, newspapers, and TV — which mostly echo the lies of scheming politicians and their pathological theoreticians who conveniently shape history to fatten their own financial portfolios.

Utterly deceived by the political lies our government tells us every day, we actually have no idea about our own actual history nor, in this useless overproduction of knowledge we are required to master that actually prevents us from thinking at all, do we have any idea what our government is doing at this present moment.

We don't find out later, either, because no matter who is in charge, they lie about everything they say, and insist it's in the best interests of the people. Is this a species that can be trusted, or relied upon to do the right thing? The evidence says otherwise.

Think about it. What is happening in the world is usually 180 degrees out from what our government SAYS is happening. Example, we are bombing Syria because we are fighting ISIS; yet, we are funding ISIS through third-party stooges Qatar, Bahrain, and the evil Saudis.

We invented al-Qaida to answer the question of who knocked down the World Trade Center towers, and just today the government was telling us we had to look at al-Qaida, now tens of thousands strong and positioned all over the world, as a positive force in America's war on Syria.

And of course the entire sordid drama is overseen by the Israeli puppet masters, who are immune to all logic and laws with their financial stranglehold on most of the politicians in the world.

Law enforcement in the United States is a complete joke when the highest officials in the land commit crimes openly and a lapdog press corps constantly looks the other way while feeble police kill innocent bystanders for no reason but their own incompetence and even if they are charged is seldom convicted.

Yet still, Americans have yet to understand that what psychopathological criminals do to their enemies they will do to their friends, and this is what everyone is experiencing right now as our society prepares for its final shakedown.

The abuse of innocence

Which are you? You're cynical and razor-sharp self or a bruised ego on a mission to nowhere?

In any case, you're likely to trust your own poorly informed ego; you're not likely to admit your comprehension of history is totally erroneous.

Ancient Greece's great leader, Pericles, spoke of this in his famous Funeral Oration.

It is hard to speak properly upon a subject where it is difficult to convince your hearers that you are speaking the truth.

On the one hand, the friend who is familiar with every fact of the story may think that some point has not been set forth with that fullness which he wishes and knows it to deserve. On the other, a stranger to the matter may be led by envy to suspect exaggeration if he hears anything above his own nature.

For men can endure to hear others praised only so long as they can persuade themselves of their own ability to equal the actions recounted: when this point is passed, envy comes in and with it incredulity.

Praise of other people is tolerable only up to a certain point, the point where one still believes that one could do oneself some of the things one is hearing about. Once beyond that point, people become jealous disbelievers.

But perhaps Pericles' best remembered piece of advice is this.

One's sense of honor is the only thing that does not grow old, and the last pleasure when one is worn out with age, is not, as the poet said, making money, but having the respect of the people who have known you best.

For it is only the love of honour that never grows old; and honour it is, not gain, as some would have it that rejoices the heart of age and helplessness.

Though deemed out of fashion in a Wall Street world, this lost honor is what keeps humanity distracted from their own lives by the chains of chaos.

Society has been overtaken by its own promiscuity

One of the ironies of the creative process is that it partly cripples itself in order to function. I mean that, usually, in order to turn out a piece of work, the author has to exaggerate the emphasis of it, to oppose it in a forcefully competitive way to other versions of the truth; and he gets carried away by his own exaggeration, as his distinctive image is built on it . . . . The problem is to find the truth underneath the exaggeration, to cut away the excess elaboration or distortion and include that truth where it fits. Ernest Becker, The Denial of Death, 1974

The false cry of SIX MILLION DEAD Echoes across time like a nightmare from the mind of a madman. You've no doubt seen the story of the history detailing the use of this freighted phrase since the late 19th century, six million Jews in jeopardy of starving by one evil government or another, forever 6 million! Jewish newspapers kept running these stories right up until they could pin it all on Hitler in a triumphant public relations strategy.

Becker, a Jewish cultural anthropologist, described the danger of exaggeration correctly. He also inadvertently described the situation of so-called Jewish persecution by the Germans, which was triggered by a Jewish declaration of war against the Germans nine years before World War II ever started.

The Red Cross death toll from German camps researched in 1980 came to around 270,000. How much of a Jewish exaggeration is 6 million?

And where do the 12 million Germans who were murdered by the ‘allies’ after the war ended fit into your calculations?

Also, the blood libel of the Jews wanting to suck the blood of gentile children was falsely blamed on the Germans, who actually were scrupulous in their conduct of prisoners. Because of kosher public relations excellence, virtually the entire world believes the Jewish lies about Hitler, who in fact was the world’s most beloved leader of the 20th century.

Name a U.S. president who was so beloved, if you care to try.

This habit of overwrought exaggerations is also constantly present in all American rhetoric about Russia, which has been engrained into our minds as an evil menace as surely as Hitler was demonized, but only by Jewish media and not as a rule by ordinary people around the world, especially now after the heroic Russians saved Syria from American and Israeli perfidy.

I’m saying public political palaver today is lost in its own exaggerations which obscure the actual content of what is being said. After all the sensational charges, the fact remains America has propped up Russia throughout the 20th century so that the moneymaking tension keeping us on the verge of constant war kept on generating maximum profits for the Rothschild’s and their weapons manufacturers.

This process applies to the two greatest tragedies in recent times — World War II and 9/11 — in which total lies are accepted as fact by a majority of people in the world. Far removed from the time it happened, people are today being slammed into jail for challenging propagandistic lies now called “The Holocaust” that justify the crimes of the Deep State maniacs who seek to turn the world into a giant prison.

And the obvious hoax of steel skyscrapers being destroyed by fire is by now seen by all those who care to contemplate the absurdity of the government's 9/11 hype and the blanket immunity given to Israelis caught by the cops on their way to blow up the George Washington Bridge as classic smokescreens in the fog of war.

How can a population be deemed sane when its own government (the USA) has its main enemy (Russia) surrounded with military bases, and yet, Americans are told Russia remains the greatest threat? There are no Russian military bases surrounding the U.S.

You know, of course, that back in the days of the czars, Russia was America's best friend, but that was before the obvious emergence of Jewish power in America. By the time the 19th century turned into the 20th, Rothschild henchman Jacob Schiff had engineered the Japanese defeat of Russia in 1905, not only betraying a reliable old friend but setting up a new patsy for future wars.

The cause of the blindness (STRONG DELUSIONS SENT UPON A REBELLIOUS PEOPLE)

How can it be we've been unable to see the scam that continues to be played on us, always it's the rich get richer and the poor disappear to the impartial ruthlessness of poverty? It hasn't been by accident.

Its one thing to talk about nationhood but quite another to talk about what is best for the human species. From that tangent develops every revolution and every invention known to humanity, as the struggle for personal gain collides with simple facts that keep us alive, such as air to breathe and water to drink.

Is it best for our children to hear of our role inflicting cholera on a large part of the population of Yemen for the purpose of securing shipping lanes and oil fields? This is who we are as Americans. But is it who we are as humans?

The human tendency is to revel in the misfortunes of others, and there are plenty of sources around to provide them for us. In fact all commerce is based on strife, the amelioration of desires, which is why, I guess, the cleverest among us have seized upon constant wars as the best moneymaking opportunity out there.

It is your choice to let this strategy be the epitaph of an extinct human species.

The current political climate might as well be a script for some mindless TV sitcom where the truth is nowhere to be found, only the propaganda programming of perverts trying to turn people into robots, a venomous project which has largely succeeded.

The Jews founded all three TV networks and they called it diversity.

None of this will be important when we are dead. But the point is to avoid this eventuality for as long as possible, and the first step is doing this is to perceive the world as it really is as best we can, and refuse to accept the hollow lies the Jewish-programmed media monsters command us to believe.

John Kaminski is a writer who lives on the Gulf Coast of Florida, constantly trying to figure out why we are destroying ourselves, and pinpointing a corrupt belief system as the engine of our demise.
