

AMERICA'S AFFAIR WITH FAMILIAR SPIRITS

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.” Rev. 12:11

By Pastor Del Wray

Maybe you've heard the old story about the frog? They say if you drop a frog into a pot of boiling water that it will immediately jump out, but if you place the frog in a pot at room temperature and gradually raise that temperature, the frog will actually sit there until it boils to death. We are boiling to death here in America, and we don't even know it. Right now, it's a spiritual death, but the physical death is usually only a short distance behind. You may laugh and think that what I'm saying is a bit excessive, but read on and you will see how I came to such a conclusion!

Look at what's happening in America today, crisis after crisis, and it's on the news all day long. First, the housing and mortgage crisis, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac being bailed out, Lehman Brothers Bank, and now AIG, a trillion-dollar bailout. We thought it was bad when the price of gas went up, well it's headed back up again but it's nothing compared to where we are headed. They've pushed through a health care bill that will cost over a trillion dollars. According to polls, the majority of Americans did not want this healthcare bill. Nevertheless, it is being forced down our throats. It's like they are going to force us to take it because they know better. They think that once they have rammed it through that we'll all realize what a good thing it is and we'll be so thankful that they forced us to take it. What arrogance! We are trillions and trillions of dollars in debt and they tell us that the solution is to “spend our way out.” What stupidity! Anyone with a lick of sense knows that when you are tight on money that you pull in your belt and cut down on spending. We don't want to face the fact that we are on the verge of a complete, worldwide, economic crash, and no one knows how we got here or what to do to fix it. Is there any way out? Who will save us? We've turned our backs on our only hope, God. Now America is in an affair with familiar spirits with demons.

America's affair with familiar spirits and its invasion by the Spirit World have grown to such proportions that even the natural man can see what is happening to America. We've become a nation roaming with disembodied spirits that are now inhabiting our leaders, our church pulpits and even the presidency itself. Let's not forget the nine Supreme Court Justices! We are a society with humans walking around, possessed by demons and controlled, carrying out the wishes of their grand leader Lucifer himself. The world has never seen the like. And the Church sleeps in awe and disbelief. Christians are either stupid or counterfeit, take your pick. We are Bible believing “unbelievers” if there is such a thing. Muslim's that are committing every atrocity conceivable is being allowed to cross our borders because of the devil's that lead our nation. Our borders opened to demons, the invasion is underway. America is doomed and our churches are going to be held responsible.

As a nation it will be almost impossible to stop this invasion unless we have the stomach to destroy them, as to the Church there is only one way to cease this onslaught. "By the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony" We are seeing a new invasion, under the permission of Almighty God, of demon spirits unleashed on America and the orthodox Judo-Christian faith where Christians and solid Bible believing Baptist churches are being targeted. America has forsaken God and opened Pandora's Box of the "Spirit World's" Judgment. Demons, as we know, are the guardians of the gates of the hell and of death. How is this demonic invasion going to be stopped, if it is ever stopped at all? Rev. 12:11 The Gates of Hades have been opened and the Hounds of Hell have been let loose. I write with urgency and preach not only of all those that are propagating false teaching contrary to the Holy Scriptures such as the many man-made religions that we Baptist war against every day but also of the Muslim "fiends" that could have only come out of the pit of hell. The ones our Luciferian government are migrating to this their new battlefield. They are now flooding the shores of America. They are raping, torturing and beheading their way through other countries like Somalia, Syria and Iraq, killing everyone who stands in their way; Americans, Christians, even their fellow Muslims. All over the world, their goal is domination and they are coming in hordes to do it here in America. We can't negotiate with them, or buy them off, or contain them. They cannot be rehabilitated or intimidated. They must be stopped in their tracks and killed. Evil doesn't disappear with benign neglect; it grows, expands and is emboldened. We must kill them as a nation and as a Church we must be "pleading the blood of the Lamb" and "the word of our testimony" even unto death.

America has placed itself on the path of war with God and I believe the gates of hell have been open and all the demons of Hades are being unleashed on her. What does the Bible say about these demons and a nation that forgets God? Before us we'll see a list of the organized powers of darkness, of evil as though they were in an army; principalities, powers, rulers of darkness, spiritual wickedness. Paul the Apostle informs us that the kingdom of Satan is an organization of generals, colonels, lieutenants, privates, all of them under the direction of Lucifer the one cast down to earth from heaven.

Lucifer, the fallen Cherub of heaven, has made his decision to battle against God to the death. He is the master craftsman who has plotted destruction during all the ages since he first rebelled. His "I will" spirit and his "heavenly citizenship revoked" has worked through to his consuming hatred of God to write his tragic story in the annals of human history. In his warfare against God, Satan used the human race, which God created and loved. So God's forces of good and Satan's forces of evil have been engaged in a deadly conflict from the dawn of our history. Unless world leaders and statesmen understand the true nature of this warfare, they will continue to be blind leaders of the blind. They can only patch a little here and patch a little there. We will find no final solution to the world's great problems until this spiritual warfare has been settled.

We live on a perpetual battlefield; the Great War of the Ages continues to rage. The lines of the battle press in ever more tightly about God's own people. The wars among nations on earth are merely skirmished affairs compared to the fierceness of battle in the spiritual, unseen world. This invisible spiritual conflict is waged around us incessantly and unremittingly. Where the Lord is working, Satan's forces are there to hinder; where angelic beings carry out their divine directives, the devils wage a fierce battle. All this comes about because the powers of darkness press their counterattack to recapture the ground held for the glory of God.

There is a kingdom of light and godliness and goodness in this world presided over by our Lord, Jesus Christ and there is no less a kingdom of darkness and evil presided over by Satan and his fallen angels. That is so vividly presented in the Bible in many, many places. Demons in the Holy Scripture are named fifty-five times. Unclean spirits are named twenty-two times, familiar spirits sixteen times, "spirits" referring to demons fifteen times, evil spirits fourteen times, lying spirits four times, foul spirits two times, jealous spirits two times, and thus it continues through the Word of God. When we read the life of our Lord in the four Gospels, oft times, as in the passage we read aloud just now, Jesus confronts evil spirits, demons, charges them, commands them, casts them out. How can Americans be so stupid and not believe that they are actively at work in our Bible-believing Baptist Churches today? Lucifer's primary activity is against Bible believing Baptist pastors and their churches. And many he controls because his, the devil's work in our churches goes unnoticed. Why? Because Satan's activities are laughed at in our churches today, unbelief in fallen angels is doubt of God's Word and denying Jesus' very claims. We now haft to fellowship in assemblies where Satan's minions are now members. The devil claims ownership of the religious denominational crowd and needs not to be bothered with these self-righteous gainsaying hypocrites'. It's the Bible believing Baptist churches he's after.

When we turn to Luke's Book of Acts in chapters 8 and 16 and elsewhere, we are confronted with these demonic powers. And oft are they referred to in the epistles. And when we come finally to the Apocalypse, the Revelation, the consummation of the age, it is a terror, the portrayal of these satanic rulers. For example, in the sixteenth chapter of the Revelation, it is the evil spirits that gather together the kings of the earth for the great ultimate final battle of Armageddon Revelation 16:13-16.

Not only do we find this revelation and confirmation of a demonic kingdom in the Holy Scriptures, but men of learning and men of academic excellence speak of it in our modern world today. Dr. Sightler, my pastor would say and he wrote,

"To allow ignorance or prejudice concerning the subject of demons is to limit the power of Christ. We need to learn how to bind demons under the blood of Jesus."

Dr. Ben Carson now running in the Republican primary for president, a physician, a surgeon in the American Board of Surgery, writes,

"As a surgeon, I am convinced that many psychological and physical illnesses are caused by attacks upon the person by satanic forces of evil."

And the late Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., president of Bob Jones University, wrote, “Demonism today is a dreadful reality, not a figment of the imagination, nor the product of pagan superstition. The Bible, from beginning to end, talks of non-human, intelligent beings who desire to inhabit or to influence human beings.”

This is where I must begin, America’s Invasion by the “Spirit World.” Our subject, the reality of a satanic world of evil presided over by fallen Lucifer, by Satan, who directs his minions of evil and harm and destruction, the antagonists of Almighty God. Let's begin this thesis on the attack of demons against the unbeliever, that man, that soul outside of Christ.

It is the purpose of Satan to dethrone God and to enthrone himself. He says, “I will be like the Most High” Isaiah 14:14. Always back of satanic effort is that he be worshiped instead of God. You have that mournfully in the story of the temptations of our Lord, “All this will I give you if you will fall down and worship me” Matthew 4:9. The ultimate purpose of all satanic evil is to dethrone the one and true God and to enthrone Satan in the stead of Christ. And that relentless, ruthless attack is never ending.

Well, let us look at it as it is carried out in the world, the world that we live in and we can see by the Apostle Paul’s writing in 1 Corinthians 10,

“But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils” 1 Cor. 10:20.

“Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's Table and of the table of devils” 1 Corinthians 10: 21.

Paul here says that the world of unbelief, the world of idolatry is a world presided over by demons and that when we are idolatrous in our worship, that is, worshipping anything else but the true God, we are worshipping demons, we are demon possessed, we are inhabited by demons. Well, when we look at the world around us, to my amazement, the ancient primitive peoples who were animists numbered the millions and the millions. And I say I'm amazed that the same kind of worship of spirits, evil spirits, is a line of faith and religion followed by millions and millions today.

Most of the inhabitants of Africa are animists; that is, they worship evil spirits. They bow down before the spirit in a tree or in a rock or in a mountain. A missionary once told me of his work in Africa, how on a large compound was a house where they worshiped evil spirits. And he asked them, “Why don't you worship the one true God?” And this one guys response was, “The one true God would not hurt me. He is good. But these evil spirits can destroy me. So, I appease them. I worship them.”

You see that same worship of evil spirits in the Orient. You ask, “Why do you always build your pagodas and your temples and your houses with the roofs sloping upward? And the answer is, “So that the evil spirits, when they fall upon the house, will be sloped upward and back up into the heavens.” If you've ever been in Thailand, those guards that stand at the doors of the temples are the fiercest looking creations that the mind could imagine. They are fierce looking in order to scare away evil spirits from entering the house of the temple. Look at the ones already here in America.

In the ancient Roman Empire, exorcists were everywhere. The only time in the Bible that the word “exorcist” is used is in the nineteenth chapter of the Book of Acts, describing a wandering group of Jews who were exorcists Acts 19:13. And being false and superstitious, the story abounds to the glory of the true God. Animism, idolatry, the worship of evil spirits has always been and still is almost universal.

Now a second thing about the attack of demons against an unbelieving world; they counterfeit prophecy. Prophecy, using the word only in the sense of foretelling the future, prophecy is a prerogative of God. Only God knows the future, He alone, no one else. There's no religion in the world except the religion of the Bible that has in it prophesy. The reason is very apparent. If a Buddhist or a Muslim were to try to prophesy, the foolishness and the ignorance of the prophet, of the devotee, would be most apparent. He doesn't know the future. Only God knows the future.

So what Satan does, who cannot create anything, and who does not know the future, and who's not omniscient, what Satan does is, he counterfeits prophecy. He counterfeits the knowledge of the future. And he does it through necromancers, and mediums, and diviners, and astrologers, and witches, and sorcerers, against which the Word of God strongly and fiercely hates. I haven't time to read the Scriptures, such as Exodus 22:18, where God says a witch shall not be allowed to live. I haven't time to read Leviticus 19 or Leviticus 20, but I will read this passage from Deuteronomy. Deuteronomy 18, beginning at verse 10:

“There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee” Deuteronomy 18:10-12.

There's not a paper in America that dares to publish any issue without an astrological forecast in it. That's how duped, and deceived, and unbelieving, unconverted, even America is. It's an abomination to the Lord. Isaiah says, “And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God?” Isaiah 8:19. That's what a necromancer is. Necromancer means one who consults the dead. And a séance is one session where the medium contacts the dead in order to find what the future might hold. This is an evidence of the kingdom of darkness and satanic powers. It's demonology. The Bible warns to flee from it!

There are other ways that demonic activity is attacking and manifesting itself in our midst: Paul refers us to 1 Timothy 4:1,

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;” 1 Tim. 4:1.

And in 2 Corinthians 11:13, he refers to false apostles,

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ” 2 Cor. 11:13.

What he's saying sounds harsh, but when a man, for example, in the pulpit stands up or when a man in the professorial chair lectures in a doctrine, contrary to the revelation found in the Word of God, it is an evil and foul spirit that is speaking and preaching through him! Do you want me to say that again? “It is an evil and foul spirit that is speaking and preaching through him!” If you don't like that stick it in your ear and blow on your thumb, mama's baby! It's an awesome abnormality! It is something that God looks upon in terrible judgment. And the reason, of course, I think is obvious. When you lead astray the house and the people of God, and when you teach false doctrine, you are sowing the seeds of the evil one, the seeds of hurt and destruction. But that's one of the ways that the satanic power attacks our churches and our congregations, the Baptist believers. It's the way Satan uses to antagonizing and destroying the truth.

Here is another way that Lucifer is using his satanic power to attack the believer today: Paul says in 2 Corinthians 4:4 that the god of this world blinds those who would come to the light of the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ. And that idea that Paul there presents is oft repeated in the Holy Scriptures. It is the satanic power that haunts the soul of the man that would come in saving faith to Christ. Now I have met that, as you have, in a thousand different ways. When you try to win the Moslem to Christ, you are confronted with a “spirit of resistance” and disobedience and unbelief; it is harsh and cruel and hard. You meet that same spirit, a demonic spirit if you seek to testify to the Buddhist, or to the Hindu, or to the Catholic for that matter; it is a tragic reality. The spirit of unbelief and rejection possesses that entire vast kingdom of the Muslim's, or the Hindu, or the Roman Catholic, or the Buddhist. Now you meet that same spirit of unbelief and rejection in a materialistic Western world too, a materialistic America: the atheist, the secularist, the humanist, the materialist. These are possessed by an evil spirit of rejection and unbelief. And when you stand before such a one, you sense and feel that spirit of confrontation and rejection. That's the kingdom of Satan.

May I speak to just one other in this brief summary review, the last way I'll mention here that you see the activity of the demonic powers of fallen Lucifer? There is no such thing in the Bible, no such suggestion even made in the Bible of possession, of the inhabiting, of the control of a human heart, a human soul, a human life, a human personality, by good angels, a good spirit. There's no beginning of a suggestion. You see, it is God that seeks the throne of your heart, of your soul. And the angels that love our Lord Jesus Christ and love you are called in Hebrews 1:14, “ministering spirits.” Or as Jesus referred to them, talking about children, they are guardian angels that watch over us Matthew 18:10. All of the good angels, all of them without exception, all of the angels of God minister to us, and they exalt our Lord Jesus, and they are happy in doing so. The Bible says so. When just one person turns to Jesus, the angels in heaven and the saints in their presence rejoice because Jesus is enthroned in the heart, in another life, and in man's soul Luke 15:10. He is the King where He ought to be. Like Bob Jones, Sr. once said, “God wants us: our hearts, our souls, our personalities, our lives, our talents. He wants us; He wants to be King of our hearts and of our lives.” And all of the good angels rejoice in that; they point to Jesus, they rejoice when He is exalted in our lives.

Now the opposite of that: the evil angels seek to usurp the throne that belongs to God. And they seek to indwell and to infiltrate. They seek to possess. They seek to dislodge. And they seek to exalt themselves and their demonic king. What a difference! One seeks to usurp, and to possess, and to infiltrate, and to indwell, and to inhabit. And the other, the good angels seek to glorify God and to rejoice when the Holy Spirit lives in our souls.

I must hasten. We have spoken of the attack of the “satanic orders” against the world of unbelief, the unbelievers. Let us now turn to the attack on the demonic world against God's people, against God's saints. Put it down, put it down that he is everlastingly alive and well. And he seeks the destruction of God's believing people, that we cannot escape, the warfare that is. I may have mentioned the devil's attack on the unbelievers first but it is to the Bible believer that Satan marshals all of his forces to hinder and to keep the Christ indwelt child from living the Victorious Christian life, the life that overflows with the Spirit of God and His Christ.

Now let me begin by stating, lest we fall into fantastic fanaticism, let us carefully observe what God teaches us about the activity of the demonic world. First of all, the Bible makes a clear distinction between disease and demons. By that, what I'm trying to say is that not all mental and emotional and physical illness is caused by demon possession. The Bible makes a clear distinction always between disease and demonic possession. For example, in the first chapter of Mark at verse 32, “And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased and them that were possessed with devils.” Verse 34, “And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.” That's one thing, “and cast out many demons,” that's another thing. So the Bible is very careful to teach us that not all of the illnesses of our lives are caused by demons. There's a distinction between the two. You can get sick and be sick and grievously ill, but that doesn't mean you have been attacked by a demon. Now that's one thing.

Here's another thing in the Bible: the Bible teaches us that so many of the things that hurt us are due to the weaknesses of our sinful nature. The Bible calls it the works of the flesh. For example, in the fifth chapter of the Book of Galatians, you have that familiar verse, “The works of the flesh are manifest. They are adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, murders, drunkenness, reveling, and such like” Galatians 5:19-21. There is a whole list of the sins that we fall into that are due to our fleshly fallen nature. They are not evidence of the attack of demons, of evil spirits. We're just sinful people. We are born that way, the Bible says. We were conceived that way, the Scriptures say, Psalm 51:5. And our fallen nature is evident in every area of our lives. My mind is fallen; I don't think precious thoughts all the time, neither do you. My heart is fallen; I don't desire what is beautiful and holy all the time. My will is fallen; I don't volitionally choose what is right all the time. I am a fallen creature, and the sins of the flesh are manifest in our lives. It is not due to an attack of demons. It is because we are fleshly, fallen, sinful people. It has been said that 98% of our sin is the cause of the flesh and only 2% is the devil's doing.

Being more poignant, a third thing that the Scriptures are very careful that we understand: worldliness. Worldliness is a temptation into which all of us find ourselves inevitably allured and falling. First John chapter 2, beginning at verse 15:

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever” 1 John 2:15-17.

There is such a thing as worldliness. That is not the attack of a demon, worldliness! By that I mean this: the system of the world, the values of the world, and the standards of the world. There is, you use “the world of sports” or “the world of medicine” or “the world of literature.” By that, you mean the system of the sports world, the medical world, and the literary world, the social world: worldliness! Now the Bible refers to the fact of worldliness, the standards and values of the world. And it makes a distinction between that and the attack of demons. Worldliness is something that we can fall into though you are a child of God. Paul wrote in 2 Timothy 4:10, “Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world.” We can fall into the worldly life. Our values, and our standards, and our ambitions, and our desires are out in the world.

I’ve referred to it in my own life many times. I did not lose my salvation. I just began to desire and to be ambitious in the things of the world. Man, if I can just make this deal, if I can just make this money, if I can just, and pretty soon it consumes me. And instead of being the servant of God, you’re the servant of a thousand, empty, vain, lustful, false worldly desires. It’s easy for the Christian to get lulled into this kind of a false ambitious life.

But enough, we must go on. How does the demons attack the Christian; the foul evil demonic kingdom of Satan? Now he does it this way, according to the Bible, just reading the Holy Scriptures: “a demon cannot possess a child of God,” he cannot do it. The child of God is the home, the temple, so Paul writes in 1Cor. 6:19 the heart, the body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. And as such, a demon cannot possess, he cannot inhabit the child of God. But what he can do, and what he does do in many instances, he influences, he invades, he hurts, he destroys; an evil spirit is out to hinder the Christian’s growth.

The most dramatic incident that I find in the Bible is the story of Saul he stood head and shoulders above all of the men of Israel and was the pride of the prophet Samuel who anointed him. Now he was used of God; the Bible says so. In the tenth chapter of 1Samuel, the Bible says God gave Saul a new heart, and that same chapter says, “And the Spirit of God came upon him” 1 Samuel 10:9-10. And from chapter 10 to chapter 12, Saul leads the people of God from one glorious victory after another. Then he turned, he changed, and he became a child of disobedience. He disobeyed God tragically, traumatically. He broke the heart of Samuel who refused ever to see him again 1 Samuel 15:35. And in the sixteenth chapter, when you come up from the tenth chapter, the sixteenth chapter, in the sixteenth chapter of 1 Samuel, it says, “The Spirit of the Lord left Saul, and an evil spirit troubled him” 1 Samuel 16:14. “And an evil spirit troubled him.” And thereafter in the life of Saul, you have those convulsive, violent instances in his life when he is filled with an implacable anger. And twice he tried to pin David to the wall with his javelin 1 Samuel 18:10-11, 19:10-11. And of course, he died on the Mount of Gilboa by his own hand, a suicide 1 Samuel 31:4. Satan can do that to a child of God. He did it to Saul. To influence, to invade, to hurt, to destroy; he could do that to any of us! It should make us tremble.

You find that in the life of Simon Peter. In the sixteenth chapter of Matthew, the Lord addresses him: "Satan," talking to Peter, "...Get behind Me: you do not understand the things of God"

"But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offense unto me: for thou savourest, not the things that be of God, but those that be of men" Matthew 16:23.

He had allowed Satan to fill his heart and his mind. Do you remember in the twenty-second chapter of the Gospel of Luke, the Lord says: "Simon, Simon, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat" Luke 22:31. Then, thank God, the Lord said, "But I prayed for thee, and when you are turned, when you are converted, strengthen the brethren" Luke 22:32. And it happened as the Lord had prophesied. The day came when an evil spirit of denial and rejection entered the heart of Simon Peter Luke 22:54-62. The day came when the spirit of fear entered his heart. No Christian ever should be afraid of any providence, of any situation. The spirit of fear, "perfect love, perfect faith casts out fear" John 4:18, the spirit of fear entered his heart, and he denied that he even knew the Lord; and finally, the spirit of cursing and swearing Matthew 26:69-74. Oh, what Satan can do to the child of God! He attacks us on every side, and we are no equal to him and never can be. Another reason for Christ presence in our lives is to be real.

It is tragic how Satan can lure and entice the child of God and destroy his heart, and destroy his testimony, and destroy his faith, and destroy his commitment, and destroy his home, and destroy his house, and destroy his hope. That's Satan. What can we do? Nothing! But obey Jesus' Words!

How do you overcome? How are you triumphant? Revelation 12:11 says: "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, Jesus, and by the word of their testimony." May I point out to you just one thing in that? Why don't you try it sometime and see if God's Word is true? "They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony." When you are ever in a group, and they're cursing, or they are gambling, or they are carousing, or they are promiscuous, or they are unworthy in any kind of a group, you just say something good about Jesus and see what happens. They will melt before your very eyes, and the satanic power of Lucifer will flee when you witness and testify to the Word, to the loving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. It's another world. It's a new creation. Try it! See for yourself.

God being our helper, as Martin Luther said, "Here I stand so help me God." We throw ourselves totally at the mercy of God and His Word and they will be our testimony. "With the heart one believes, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" Rom. 10:10.

"The Wicked Shall Be Turned Into Hell And All The Nations That Forget God" Psalm 9:17.

America's problem is she has forgotten God and when a people forget God, a great void enters the land and those people begin to suffer and to compensate our nation is trying to fill that void without God. And one way is its affair with Familiar Spirits that is hastening the destruction of America. So we see in America today an onslaught from the Spirit World. America must turn back to God!
