

AMERICA'S RENDEZVOU WITH HELL

*"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God."
Psalms 9:17*

By Pastor Del Wray

America and its churches are now in full blown apostasy.

Does God keep His Word? According to history He does, just exactly as His Word said He would. Would you be brazen enough to contradict the Creator of the Universe, the One that created you? The world as a whole seems to think they can call God a liar and come away unscathed, just like it was in the days of Lot, screaming with reprobates. America and its leaders, especially the Africana Muslim who serves as president and the nine blacked robed Supreme Court jug heads have all become reprobates. Do you fall into that crowd? Or even may won't to join them, go ahead! You'll find out God keeps His Word, God cannot lie. Bush, Clinton and Abomination have pulled one of the biggest scams over the eyes of the people in the United States and the majority of its citizens have sucked into their fantasy dream of a better tomorrow when America's policies are leading it on a road to war with God and Hell. America better stay out of the Middle East and leave Israel alone except to defend and support her militarily and financially. The prince of this world and I'm not talking about Jesus Christ, is mixing a boiling hot cauldron of nations made up of the UN, the EU, the US and the WHORE from Rome, its leader Pope Francis I, all are behind a plan to divide Israel's Capital Jerusalem from East Jerusalem and turn East Jerusalem over to the Palestinians for their Capital for the sake of peace. That's like giving half of the Capital of America, Washington DC to the Russians. Our leaders have not come out publically on the issue but Benjamin Netanyahu is too smart and doesn't trust the leaders of this country. Recently, both leaders mixed words down to using fail language that was broadcast on CBS news in a private summit. One of the president's top administrations called Netanyahu a coward and our queer supporting leader did nothing about it. Look what has happened in the Gaza strip in the past given up for peace through force and seduction. All we see is constant fighting and continual missiles reigning down on Israel. Our Jewish friends are even being called "pigs" by the Palestinians while the call is out to annihilate them. The UN, EU, US and Rome are even moving in the direction of trying to force Israel to give in to the idea, if not willingly, then by force through sanctions. And when that happens, America will have signed her own death warrant. This more than anything else, more than all the gay pride marches in our country. More than all the queers, lesbians, faggots, homo-marriages and race mixing will bring down our nation and earn this country a place at the Judgment of God and then Hell. Thumb your nose at God and throw out His Bible and when Hell opens up beneath you, remember I told you so!

I care less of what you think of me and what I write or how mean you think I am, I will not lose one wink of sleep over your opinions and feelings about this old preacher. That goes for all you Sodomites out there too and all you who have voted to legalize the "queer mania" that is swamping our country. It is your kind that has brought this nation to the brink of suicide and the pit of Hell. There, someone is waiting for you on the other side, and you won't like him either. A word for your breed:

Homosexuality is due special attention here for several reasons. First, Paul the Apostle, sometimes called the greatest preacher to walk on planet earth outside of Jesus Christ Himself, spoke as he was moved by the Holy Spirit, gave the sin of homosexuality special attention. It is important that you carefully read Romans Chapter 1, repeatedly. It is clear that on the ladder of human depravity, homosexuality is the bottom rung. By the time a person reaches the state of hard core, defiant, unrepentant, homosexual lifestyle, God has washed His hands of that person. God does not hate them because they are homosexuals; they are homosexuals because God hates them. That is an important distinction. Further, throughout the Old Testament, when the nation of Israel was in its worst spiritual condition, in full blown apostasy, the Bible makes a point of telling us that sodomy was one of the chief traits of society see I Kings 14:24. Under the Law of Moses, the penalty for homosexuality was death. Further, sodomy is the only sin which caused God to rain fire from heaven on Sodom and Gomorrah. So, we have a Bible basis for recognizing that homosexuality is a particularly heinous sin in the eyes of the God of this Universe.

Second, and perhaps in the immediate context more important, this is the sin that is at the forefront of the moral crisis in this nation. We, God's people did not start the homosexual movement. We did not put this movement on the front page of every major newspaper, in every phase of the entertainment industry, and in the schools. We are not the ones insisting that this awful behavior serve as the basis for special legal rights. We are not the ones marching up and down the streets demanding that people accept and respect us for our sins. This is the only sin to which America is seriously contemplating giving civil rights to. Imagine if embezzlers, murderers or rapists demanded that they be given protection, not punishment, by law because of their wrongful deeds? You would struggle for breath in bewilderment. Yet you embrace the notion that because someone engages in sex with a person of the same gender and then chooses to broadcast that fact they should be protected? Blasphemous! This sin is so insidious by its nature, and those who commit such things so abominable by their nature, that it serves as the litmus test for a society. When God has turned his back on a people, sodomites rule the land. America is on the brink of that condition, and only by an abundance of mercy will God forebear the utter destruction of this country. That is why I focus on the sodomites. The sodomites, queers in our land should be exposed for their dangerous, sinister, subtle and menacing life styles. And as long as I am breathing I will warn God's people, in the Church, in our ministry and in my writings. I love this country, I love our freedoms. We live in the greatest country on earth and God by His grace gave it to us gentiles and He can take it away anytime He desires. We must turn back to God before it is too late!

Third, similar conditions existed in Sodom and Gomorrah, which was destroyed by God. Jesus warned us that it would be like it was in the days of Lot, "Sodom and Gomorrah" just before He returns. We are in those days right now, and this abomination should be preached against, not condoned! If you are a homosexual, you should be ashamed of yourself. If you support queers, you should be ashamed of yourself. It was your type that brought destruction on the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, and it will be your kind who fuels God's wrath to the point that there will be no remedy, just certain Judgment.

Finally, you should realize that the full scope of the Lord's work here at Victory Bible Baptist Church is broader than exposing sin and the homosexual agenda. Our aim is to warn the lost and reach as many people as we can with the gospel message of the saving power of Jesus Christ. If you read all of our articles, our website <http://biblerays.com> and hear the preaching in our church week in and out, you will find out and realize that we have a full doctrinal range of the Bible in all our activities. Someone wrote recently and asked if I was a sinner? Yes I was, and yes I am right now and will be until the rapture or they put this body in the ground. Until then, I as all believers wait for the redemption of our bodies. Rom. 8:23

“And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.”

Of course I'm a sinner. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God, and if any man says he has not sinned he's a liar. I am no better than anyone, no better than the worst sinner. “Chief of sinners” as Paul said. No human is good of his or her own accord. The only righteousness that God recognizes is the righteousness that He gives that comes from Jesus Christ His Son. His righteousness is a single heart, humble, contrite and broken. I'm consumed by His Son and devoted to Him. And the only way a man's heart becomes this way is by God touching it and making it that way.

The difference between me and a defiant, practicing sinner is God's Grace. When the grace of God operates on the heart of a human, that human desires to obey God and live soberly and righteously. Repentance, when it takes place, that person profoundly abhors his sinful nature, and falls on his face and knees before God begging for mercy. And God has mercy on that heart. Then, and only then, a true spirit of repentance exists, and forgiveness follows.

The average sinner and average hireling pastor today would have it that God forgives the practicing homosexual even as he continues to be a practicing homosexual. Forgiveness does not come without repentance. Repentance does not come, by definition, without the sin stopping. When the homosexual conduct stops, the person is no longer a homosexual. Homosexuality is a behavior not a trait. Until that happens, it is folly of the worst kind to think or claim that God has forgiven the homosexual or any Christ rejecting sinner.

I have a hope that I will not burn in hell. Not because I am sinless. I am utterly incapable of being sinless, though I strive to walk orderly in the sight of God. My hope comes from faith, and by grace, which both come from God.

We here at Victory Baptist preach the Bible with two-thirds of it being about hatred, vengeance and wrath. Are we so blind that we cannot see that the Bible preaches God's wrath to come, God's hate, and His hate for the sinner? For every one verse about God's mercy, love, and compassion, there are two verses about His vengeance, hatred, wrath, etc. The panty waist, mushy, kissy-poo, feel-good, touchy-feely preachers of today's society are damning the souls of this nation and this world to Hell. They are telling you what you want to hear rather than what you need to hear, just like what happened in the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah:

"That this [is] a rebellious people, lying children, children [that] will not hear the law of the LORD: Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." Isaiah 30:9-11;

"Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart." Jeremiah 14:14;

"They have healed also the hurt [of the daughter] of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when [there is] no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? Nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time [that] I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD." Jeremiah 6:14-15.

And also in the New Testament we are warned:

"For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, [even] a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians [are] alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith." Titus 1:11-13;

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of." II Peter 2:1-2.

What you need to hear is that God hates people, and that your chances of going to heaven are nonexistent, unless you repent. What you need to hear is a little fire and brimstone preaching, like Jesus preached. What you don't need to hear is that you're okay just the way you are, and God accepts everyone without exception. Don't listen to the money-grubbing heretic who stands at the front of your church. Listen to God. If you are one of His, you'll hear.

Why are you so harsh? Because the God of our Bible is harsh, the truth is harsh. We use great plainness of speech, and will not beat around the bush when it comes to someone's eternal soul around here. Watch out for those people who tell you that it's okay to be gay; they'll take you to Hell with them.

It has been said "honey draws more flies than does vinegar." That phrase is not really biblical as it sounds true. The Bible teaches the exact opposite. For example, Jude says "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And of some have compassion, making a difference, and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh." Furthermore, you should carefully examine all of the preachers written about in the Bible. Read, listen and watch Jesus as He preachers in Scripture. On some, they had "compassion." On others, they preached "fear." It is our duty to make a difference in today's world. It is God's command that we preach as they, those found in Holy Writ. Otherwise you are found supporting the enemies cause.

John 3:16 says "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." That says God loves everyone, right? Wrong. Every so-called Christian in the world will cite John 3:16 as proof that God loves everyone. They don't have any idea what the verse means, and, under the guidance of the lying false prophets who make up the "Christian" landscape, twist it to mean what they want it to mean. We call that "...wresting the scripture unto your own destruction." 2 Peter 3:16.

It seems that if you're going to base an entire lying theology on one part of a verse, you would at least know what the verse means. But so-called Christians today are far too simple-minded and lazy to look into the matter. So we'll do it for you: the word translated "world" in John 3:16 is the Greek word "kosmos." The word never means "every individual of mankind who ever lived." In fact, the word has at least seven different meanings in the scripture, depending on the context in which it's used. It can mean Gentiles, as opposed to Jews; it can mean the world of believers; it can mean the world of unbelievers; it can mean the physical creation; etc. If you would actually read what the verse says, and read the context around the verse, you would find that the answer is right before your deceiving eyes, you just don't want to see it, because it conflicts with how your evil, dark heart thinks or how God ought to be! The context is "the world of believers" whether they are Jews or Gentiles. Those are the people God loves. Those are the people for whom Jesus died. Jesus didn't come to condemn those people, He came to save them. But everyone else is already condemned, because they don't believe. John 3:18 look it up!

Turn a few pages to John 10, you may be surprised to find that there is actually more to the Bible than John 3:16, but believe me, there is. You will find in John 10:11 that Jesus says "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep." Later on in verse 26, Jesus says to some unbelievers: "But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you." Jesus says He came to die for the sheep, and then proceeds to say that only His sheep can believe. In other words, only the people for whom Jesus died will believe. Note that the reason that unbelievers don't believe is because they are not His sheep. This passage explains who the world is in John 3:16, believers and it's clearly not everyone. Furthermore, the only people who can believe are the ones whom God has ordained to eternal life. "And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed." Acts 13:48 so, if you have been ordained to eternal life that means that you will believe, you are one of God's sheep, God loves you, and He sent His Son to die for you so you wouldn't be condemned. If you have not been saved and received eternal life, then you are not one of His sheep, you are already condemned.

What I've told you here is the only interpretation that makes sense, because that is the only interpretation that is consistent with the rest of the Scripture. For example, God hated Esau! Romans 9:13. And He didn't just hate him, He hated him before he was even born and had done neither good nor evil! Romans 9:11. If He hates a person, He doesn't love everyone. For another example, there are billions of people in hell. If He loves those people, what a strange way of showing it!

Our message to this lost evil world is that God hates you, and you better prepare for the return of Christ in power and glory. Jesus came the first time to save; and Jesus will come the second time in wrath taking vengeance, because you do not obey the Gospel. It will be soon, and you will experience the wrath of God as meted out by the hand of Jesus Christ Deut. 7:10, Rev. 6:16.
