

RACE MIXING IS NOT CHRISTIAN

Scripture Reading: Nehemiah 10:28-30

Christian Identity has restored one of the most prevalent issues found in the Word of God and that is the subject of race. However, in an attempt to bring forward the righteous corrections of faulty teachings, it is somewhat like revisionist historians dealing with the holocaust industry. Christian Identity does not enjoy the glut monopoly of merchandising information as does the establishment religions and media, although we do have a gift of discernment and an unwavering love for truth wherever it may lead. What we have been told about race in the Bible has been an unmitigated fraud to destroy us. What the Bible actually says about race will preserve us. We are like David standing up against Goliath having a wealth of encyclopedic facts to sanction the mixing of the races. This has been accomplished over a long period of time by contaminating the historical record and the Bible itself with disinformation.

I have been called to task recently to prove the Christian Identity Truth (it is not a theory like evolution), and will do so from the Word/Law of God. A law, like the law of gravity, is not just a good idea or suggestion; it is an established foundation, absolute and infallible. Hence, the foundations of Creation and the purpose for which we are here become all important. I have been challenged to stand and deliver, not from the Judeo-Christian crowd, but from anti-Christian racialists. I would preface racialists by saying alleged.

This issue of whether race mixing is advocated or prohibited in the Bible was prompted by a message I gave about "Why Some People Just don't Get It"; "it" being the identity of the White race in relation to the Bible. We live in a time when there is an increase of information. People can choose what to believe from so many sources, that the average person cannot read it all in their lifetime. So they depend on the marketplace of ideas of what makes sense to them. Preconceived notions and intellectual prejudices will always color what people select as their truth. This then becomes a reflection of what they are in life and what they give or take from their own race.

Putting forth the premise that race mixing is not Christian automatically prompts cries of foul from all quarters. But the division is basically two sided. When the Bible says, "Prove all things" it is quickly followed by the admonition to hold on to the good. In the eternal war of words we are warned that some people will turn good into evil and evil into good. If someone chooses to not only ignore the Bible, but to misrepresent it, it then becomes a matter of changing the truth of God into a lie. Who could that possibly be? It would be those who have made the wrong choice and have selected proof that is not good. For example, the Jewish holocaust is riddled with false proof and yet some people accept it as fact. This produces evil consequences. If we reject and distort what the Bible has to say about race mixing, we likewise will suffer evil upon our society. That's exactly what has happened to our nation. The battle between good and evil determines blessings or curses.

In seeking to determine what the Bible teaches, it is necessary to start at the beginning. Nobody can squirm around the basic premise of Adam and Eve being of the same race. I don't know of any versions that say they were the first two Orientals or Negroes. History depicts them as White. Christian Identity further identifies them by rightly dividing the word Adam, which means man. Strong's Concordance elaborates on this kind of man (#119, 120) being ruddy, to show blood in the face, i.e. to blush or turn rosy. From Thomas O'Brien's book "Verboten" we glean from his commentary that, "Even the ability to blush (show blood in the face) is confined to the White race. This is caused by your subconscious which only God controls, as He breathed His Living Spirit into Adam who passed it on to you, his White descendants. You are an infinitesimal projection of your Creator, so when you do or say something embarrassing, your subconscious rushes blood to your face. The colored races, not having been endowed with God's Spirit, have no abstract sense of right or wrong, consequently are never embarrassed." It is a misnomer to call other races or species mankind. In the book of Genesis, God's Law of kind after kind was established, meaning species. The Bible we have in our hands today repeatedly teaches about 'seed after its own kind' in which each and every species of plants and animals propagate within their own kind. In the case of Adamkind, it is clearly the White race. The Bible interprets itself by declaring that "This is the book of the generations of Adam" (Gen. 5:1). Generations means the genetic posterity. You can read more details in the article "The Adamic Creation".

Let me give you a thumbnail sketch of the rest of Genesis as it pertains to race mixing. Obviously there were other races as we read about the first case of Adam's seed being polluted with Cain, a cursed murderer of his brother. Cain was purged from Eden and moved "east of Eden" (which would have been in and among the Mongolian people), to a non-Adamic land filled with non-Adamites. He then produced the first mongrel offspring named Enoch. From the time of Adam and Eve to the time of Noah, race mixing became epidemic, and God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth. This sin of race mixing is so serious that God killed the offenders. However, there was one man and his family that found grace in the eyes of the Lord, who was perfect in his generations; in other words, he was racially pure. The result of all this race mixing was corruption and violence (Genesis 6:11). The narrative establishes a paramount theme that runs throughout the Bible: race mixing is not Christian.

There are indeed two manners of people in the world: those who remain racially pure and those who don't. The problem again arises with the twin boys, Jacob and Esau, fulfilling their separate destinies from the time of their birth. History also shows that whenever these people sought to integrate and intermarry, the results were always the same: violence, confusion and judgment from God. On the other hand, when they lived separately as God ordered, each respectively lived in harmony apart from each other. History also shows that whenever the racially pure offspring of Jacob failed to assume their God-mandated office of taking dominion and administering God's Laws, conversely allowing the offspring of Esau to occupy and determine the law of the land, there has been nothing but trouble, chaos and God's judgment. Destruction of White Christian civilization is the primary purpose of the Jewish drive towards racial amalgamation. They know that it has always been White Christian society that has proclaimed liberty throughout the land and are the custodians of freedom. So in order to control the world, this element of God's Spirit must go to the grave in various forms of genocide. Historians and social engineers know that a mongrelized people is easier to control, because they have a deformed spirit and no identity. These destroyers of mankind know that every White civilization (and there have been some 25 of these civilizations in the sixty centuries of recorded history) that has practiced race mixing, has destroyed themselves from within. You want to talk about fairy tales? There has never been a great Black civilization in Africa and mongrels have never been able to rule their subjects justly. South Africa enjoyed White Christian apartheid until its Christian faith was undermined by antichrist distortions of the Word. It is now the murder capital of the world.

Esau would corrupt his racial line by marrying into another race, which was strictly forbidden. He took a wife of the Hittites which was "a grief of mind" to his parents. "And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan" (Gen.28:1). This command not to marry into another race was the same one given by Abraham concerning Isaac, where he told his son to find his wife in his country and among his kindred (his own kind). Deuteronomy 32:8 clearly states that God separated the races, "When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds [borderlines] of the people according to the number of the children of Israel." The White race at that time had their land and the other races had theirs. This verse tells us that there is a specific number of White Adamic Israelites to be born in order to fulfill the plan of God. How can any racist complain about this kind of orderly separation?

Throughout Scriptures we find that God's order in every realm has always been separation, selection and discrimination, while the enemies of God and the White race have always been integration, equality and tolerance. The surest way to prevent White people from achieving their manifest destiny is to prevent them from reproducing their own kind. The strategy of our enemy is to mix the races and produce what the Bible calls "bastards". The Hebrew word for bastard is "mamzer" and means a mongrel or half-breed. "A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord" Deut. 23:2. Churches are full of smiling mamzers who are told the Bible says to mix. The propaganda we struggle against today is from those who misrepresent the Word of God and falsely identify who God's people married in the Old Testament times in an effort to justify race mixing. They do not have the Spirit of God, in which our body, the temple of God, facilitates the indwelling of God. Without a spirit-filled race, there is no possibility of White people fulfilling our purpose on earth. Fornication (which is race mixing) adulterates God's plan for the Ages. God does not dwell in a racially adulterated habitation. If you remove Christianity from the world, you remove God's law prohibiting race mixing.

And then, alleged White men regurgitate this disinformation to trash Christianity as a whole. Are they without the intellectual integrity to take advantage of understanding the Holy Racial Bible of Adamkind? The above mentioned clues of our ancient people doing good or evil determines the racial identity with whom they married. The arguments of those opposed to Christian Identity can go on forever like a Jewish lawyer. They usually take something so obscure in nature and distorted and pass it off as fact. Unless, a Christian man is well acquainted with this technique, he will be chasing down rabbit trails that do not persuade the antagonist in the long run. That's why I'm presenting a wholistic picture of race mixing from a Christian Identity perspective that even a school child can understand. Some people are too smart for their own good and it makes no difference whether you prove anything or not. They just don't get it. There is the possibility that they have family secrets buried in the woodpile (family tree), that cancel the Spirit, and therefore they cannot be of God and hence their antipathy towards the Divine.

There is the usual litany of case histories which advocates of race mixing throw into the pot. Let us recall that Paul said, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures may have hope" (Romans 15:4). In other words, we can learn the truth about racial questions from the Old Testament. No Christian who is at all familiar with the O.T. would or could be in favor of racial intermarriage, because it is forbidden and condemned in the strongest possible words. "And when the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them. Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thou daughter shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son... For thou art an holy people [a racially pure people]" (Deut. 7:2-3, 6).

But, we have a war of words between White Christians and mongrelized judeo-Christians, along with centuries of distorting the Word of God to imply a religion of universalism and inclusion that fits nicely into the New World Order of Jewish communism. The antichrist racialists should stop and think about that for a moment before they start talking about Jewish fairy tales, not only for their own sakes, but for the implications of our racial survival. Do we fail to recognize the perversion of racially adulterated churches and doctrines that sustain it? Or, do we take the racially conscious spirit of Christian Identity and discern the good from the bad racial issues based on the principles of God's racial laws?

Race mixing is equal to racial extermination. The race war against White people is waged primarily by the most mongrelized people on the face of the earth.... Jews. For 2000 years they have been devising slow and fast, direct and indirect ways of death for our race. When those of our own kind willingly or unwittingly do the work of the jew by adulterating all knowledge of Jesus Christ and His Word of racial salvation, they become twice the child of hell than the scribes (media whores) and Pharisees (pulpit pimps). By eliminating Christianity, so too, must the true Israel manifested in the White race be removed from their devilish dream of a Pax Judaica - a world run by jews.

Please be patient when hearing or reading this message; anticipating an address to the Bible trivia questions in a pseudo college debate with anonymous internet experts spelling God with a small g. The explanations are secondary if we first don't understand biblical principles. If I were to just rattle off a pure Christian Identity response, it would be no different than tossing costly pearls into a mud pit of oinking pigs. The Bible says don't do that or they'll just snort and try to rip your leg off. Well, the Word also says be wise as serpents. I think that means be as cunning as your enemy. I've read that the Simon Weisenthal Center has a staff of some 80 full time rabbis monitoring hate groups on the internet and working their sorceries on Christian forums. For all I know, I'm not dealing with some punk 20 or 30 year old nerd who thinks he knows it all, but some fat bald headed Henry Kissinger type that plays religious head games like chess. Whoever it is that takes pleasure in denigrating the Word: be advised that God is not mocked. However you slice it, those who gleefully twist Scriptures to the detriment of our race will meet the same fate as those who impersonate Israel. By now, any honest person should recognize the bold principles of God's racial laws so that the context of any racial circumstance revolves around it being good or evil. One need not depend upon spurious sources that rationalize race mixing to know that race mixing is condemned by God. There is no debate. Race mixing is not Christian.

Let us now turn our attention to the foul stream of citations manipulated for the purpose of falsely interpreting something as race mixing. Let us chase the change agents out of our national temple without getting too muddy. The most popular exploitations are:

- Moses was married to a Negro
- Joseph was married to a Negro

- The book of Ruth is a story of a mixed race marriage
- The Ethiopian eunuch was an African Negro
- Rahab was a Canaanite
- All races evolved from Adam
- Christ descended from more than one mixed-race marriage
- Semites were a dark skinned race
- All descendants of Ham were a dark skinned race
- The bride in The Song of Solomon was a Negro

There are many lesser used arguments, but the point of this listing is that they are all dead wrong. I'm not going to dive in head-first into this pigsty just to appease the sophistry of swine. I'm going to take the one at the top of the list, because it is the one most commonly used to convince simpletons that the Bible promotes race mixing. Common sense dictates that Christian racialsists, such as myself and others, would not be of this persuasion if something as hypocritical as Moses marrying a nigger or Jesus was a jew or the more absurd notion that Christianity owes its existence to jewry were true. It is not only gratuitously insulting; it is the chutzpah of spiritual warfare. They say Moses was married to a Negro with a straight face and sprinkle a little bit of judaized information on this idea for confirmation. They create a controversy from Numbers 12:1 with one word... Ethiopian. With immaculate fidelity of scholarship (read sarcastically) they convey the idea that the Ethiopia of today is the same as it was 3,500 years ago. Why anyone would presuppose that demographics remain static over millenniums is mind boggling. But the edjewcational system today is well known for dumbing down the next generation. Kids can't locate California on a map. Please restrain your laughter and applause until I'm finished. You've heard the saying that "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing"? Well, that's because it never gets beyond half-truths, which mislead and confuse. We often find defective scholarship in early translations which have become accepted as doctrine. Then someone comes along saying God is a fairy tale; and they're hostile to Christianity and they try to continue the curse of mistranslation. This is like giving a monkey a loaded gun. Christians should never allow non-Christians to teach them what the Word of God is all about. We know what it's about, and it's about race and keeping it pure.

Let's get back to Moses and his wife. "And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married, for he had married an Ethiopian woman" Numbers 12:1. Any concordance, such as Strong's, translates "Ethiopian as being #3569, meaning "A Cushite [a resident of Cush], or a descendant of Cush." Who was Cush? Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japhet. Genesis 10:6 informs us that the sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Phut and Canaan. Noah and his wife were both racially pure White people, so their children were naturally the same. Only Canaan and his descendants were cursed. The theory that Moses married a Negro is totally dependant upon the speculation that God's curse upon Ham turned him black: into a Negro. This is pure Talmudic fantasy to explain where blacks come from. The curse, according to the Bible, is that they would be servants to Shem and Japhet. We know from secular history that the black race was in existence long before the days of Noah. This does not mean that the Canaanites did not mix their seed. They did. Mizraimites (which means Egyptian) obviously settled in Egypt. We know from the Egyptian art of fine portraiture and sculpture that they were a White people until they eventually inter-married with non-Whites. The Cushites settled in two major areas. One was south of the Sudan in Africa and the other was in eastern Mesopotamia (where in times past was part of the Babylonian empire). Both areas were settled by White people, but of course the proximity to Negroes in Africa was a geographical reality. This land of Cush (in Mesopotamia) flourished about 1500 B.C., during the time of Moses. The exodus from Egypt occurred 1486 B.C. Please note that there is nothing in the Bible that suggests or even hints that Moses was in the land known today as Ethiopia or any other place where Negroes reside.

"Now when Pharaoh heard this thing [the slaying by Moses of an Egyptian (a White man) who was beating a Hebrew/Israelite (a White man)], he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midian" Exodus 2:15. Midian was a son of Abraham and his descendants became Cushites, living in the valleys of the Tigris and Euphrates. They were racially pure White people. It was this time of Moses' exile that he married the daughter of the Priest of Midian. "He gave Moses Zipporah, his daughter, and she bore him a son" Exodus 2:21-22. There wouldn't have been any Negro priest in this land of Cush. His name Reuel means 'friend of God', and is sometimes referred to as Jethro and means 'his excellency'; a title of respect. Who, in their right mind, is going to believe that a Negro savage beast was the highest ranking priest (under the order of the Melchizedek priesthood) in an all-White society?

How silly to imagine that Moses violated God's Law by race mixing and married into the family of a Negro priest, which could only be the worship of a false god. How foolish and unlikely it is to suppose that this former Prince of Egypt, raised in the royal household of Pharaoh as an adopted son, knowing that the Egyptians considered the Negroes as wild animals to be killed on sight if found outside of their role as chained slaves working in the fields). and then, these men of disinformation presume that God would choose Moses to lead His covenant people out of bondage, even with the above violations to His law.

No, the son of royalty would not take a wife of the Negro Cush in Africa or anywhere else. At this time he learned the topography of the wilderness territory that Israel would soon be led into by him. It was while Moses was guarding the flocks of his father-in-law, God appeared to him in the burning bush at Mt. Horeb (which is not in Africa). This is when God gave Moses the commission to go to Egypt and set his people free. Once there, he taught them their proud heritage as God's people Israel and that they must keep their race pure. How could Moses have been one of the great heroes of faith, if he committed the abominable sin of race mixing that brought shame, disgrace and chastisement to the Israel people throughout their history? How could Moses have been chosen of God to oppose the false gods of Egypt after spending 40 years with a Negro family worshipping a false god? But there will be those who try to convince you that the square peg fits into the round hole. Are we to believe that God would bless Moses and his offspring to be workers in the tabernacle, when the Word states "a bastard shall not enter into the congregation"?

Let us now confront the canard of Miriam and Aaron accusing Moses of race mixing. It is true that Moses married a woman who was not an Israelite. However, she was not only White, but also a descendant of Abraham, the great grandfather of Jacob-Israel. So this matter of Zipporah can't be used as a justification for race mixing. Moses did not marry outside of his race; he married outside of his geographic location of national Israel. His brother Aaron and his sister Miriam taunted Moses about his marriage outside their territorial perimeters of Israel's culture. "And they said, hath the Lord indeed spoken only by Moses? Hath he not spoken also by us? And the Lord heard it" Numbers 12:2. Oops! If Moses was such a big bad race mixer, don't you think this would be the accusation instead? ... "Ah, Lord we have a major problem here with Moses breaking your Law and race mixing." Is that what we hear? No. What is in the Bible is sniveling mixed with jealousy and murmuring covetousness. God then calls the two on the carpet. It would seem that if Moses was in fact a race mixer, the burning bush would turn him into toast; he would be the one who is reprimanded. But he is not. God called forth Aaron and Miriam and began to teach them a lesson about respect for a man of God. The antichrist racialists should consider doing the same thing by shutting their mouths and opening their eyes. Don't just read the Bible with preconceived notions and animosity. Study the Word to show your self approved of God! God referred to Moses as a man "Who is faithful in all My house?" Nu. 12:7. Now I ask you brothers and sisters: if Moses was such a race traitor, would the Creator of our race call him faithful? If Moses was guilty, why was Miriam punished?

Moses was a great White leader. He planted the seed of truth and set the example. It is incomprehensible for any religion to have a guy that preaches one thing to the people and then goes out and does just the opposite. He wrote the first five books of the Old Testament in which the people were clearly warned against miscegenation. Moses not only was faithful, he was honorable in not violating God's Law of racial integrity. Throughout the scriptures there is a principle of consistency and continuity. Any honest examination will prove that. God made no exceptions for anyone. This truth stands and delivers. All of these other contentions about race mixing in the Bible can be answered with diligent study and a willing spirit to learn. I will not waste my time spoon feeding arrogant, scripture-twisting devils who, "Know nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings [like Moses marrying a Negro], perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself" (I Tim. 6:5).

The Christian Identity movement is not a denomination. I am but one voice among many. People come into our movement with their denominational baggage or no bags at all, but the one thing which we speak in unison is who we are and why we're here. Let me make one thing perfectly clear: we are fed up with the jewish tag. No matter how many times we explain the error of this indictment; there are adversaries who persist in their propaganda. I have answered the charge of race mixing in the Bible and refuted those who would change the truth of God into a lie. Because, you see, there are individuals who would throw water on your flames; who emasculate the men of God; who worship themselves as gods and care not what we say. To such people, debate among yourselves as to how you can destroy Christian Identity. You will fail. I have completed my duty of contending for the faith against antichrist racialists (or perhaps jewish lackeys according to Proverbs 26:4 which says, "Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit").

Only a fool would now try to debate this message. For those who get it, you may now laugh. For those who still just don't get it: you bring shame, disgrace and chastisement to the White race. From such miserable excuses, I withdraw myself. Let this message be a standard raised up against them. Shake off the dust from your feet kinsman, as a testimony against them. Don't let anybody tell you race-mixing is Christian. "And the house of Jacob shall be as fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the Lord hath spoken it" Obadiah 18. Gentlemen, start your ovens.
