

THEY'RE RAPING AMERICA

It is precisely because the governments of the world have turned their back on the true God, our Lord Jesus Christ that America and the rest of the world is facing such a crisis.

By Pastor Del Wray

The Jews running America today are not Jews at all but are those of the Synagogue of Satan who have stolen their Jewish identity from the true descendents of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob/Israel. True Jews are Semites while those holding powerful seats in the US government today are Khazar Jews migrated here from Communist Jewry, Soviet Red Russia. The wrong Jews, who are not Jews at all, are seeking to overthrow our government and turn the country into an atheistic nation. This document, I trust will open the eyes of many Americans to the conspiracy taking place in America even now.

“I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.” Rev. 2:9

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” Rev. 3:9

Russia Was the Start of Jewish World Domination

The original Jews were Sephardics, out of the Middle East, who went to Spain and Portugal as members of the Islamic empire when the Moors occupied the Iberian Peninsula.

However, almost all Jews today are not descendants of the Sephardics, but originate from a band of ruthless Mongolian tribes called the Khazars. The Sephardics, in search of an army for their revolution, chose the Khazars. The Khazars were converted to Judaism, and today they make up 95% of the world's Jewish population.

Military geniuses, such as Kublai Khan, Genghis Khan, and Attila the Hun, always hired Khazars as mercenaries. At the peak of Russia's empire she kept the Khazars confined to the 'Pale of the Settlement' (Ukraine).

The Sephardics used the Eastern European Khazars as a starting point for their plans of world domination. Their first move towards that goal was to take control of Russia by overthrowing the Czar.

Will America suffer the same fate?

The Christian Church in America stands at a crossroads. My purpose in this writing is to expose the Jews and their Jewish Talmud which is to the Jewish world what the Bible is to the Christian world. In the words of Jewish author Herman Wouk, it is the "heart's blood of the Jewish religion." It is to expose it's hatred of those who are Christians and for Jesus Christ Himself. Its revelation is the complete annihilation of Christianity from the earth.

My purpose is not to downgrade the Jewish people, or stir up resentment against them. My purpose is to expose the Jews and the Talmud's contents and the Jewish opinions of we Gentiles, and to explain, often in their own words, how they feel about you, the "goyim" (a Yiddish word meaning "non-Jew animal"), and about your religion, Christianity. It is written as a means of protecting ourselves from the greatest threat to ever face Christianity in our two thousand years of history. We cannot, we dare not, over look this threat if we are to survive as a free people.

America's strength is found in the Church in its ability to influence the hearts and lives of men by the demonstration and proclamation of divine truth. Questions like the following constantly haunt the writer: "Will the Church be able to demonstrate sufficient power to triumph over its foes in the present crisis? Or has it become so weakened by apostasy and pernicious teachings that it will have to be drenched in its own blood before it can be brought to its senses?"

Persecution has always had a purifying effect upon the Church. Like the individual saints of which it is composed, its "strength is made perfect in weakness."

Unless the Christian forces in America and of the western nations come under a new baptism of old-time spiritual power, the Church will go down and Soviet Atheism will come up. The Russian Empire was destroyed by the Red hordes, a hundred years ago, because it did not possess sufficient spiritual vitality to resist the onslaught.

A return to "God breathed" Holy Spirit evangelism is the only hope as a dependable antidote to Soviet Atheism.

If the Church of America continues to lose its spiritual foundations, it requires no prophet to determine what the future will bring forth. An old philosopher once said, to know a thing well one must understand its first cause. It is unpleasant to realize that a certain element of apostate Jewry is behind the turmoil of this dark hour and the present Soviet persecution through which the Church of Jesus Christ is passing.

Much of this writing is taken from Pastor, Dr. Gerald Winrod's paper "The Jewish Assault on Christianity".

First, a Little History behind America's real Enemy

The Jews and their treatment of Old Testament Prophets

Even a casual reading of the Old and New Testaments will show that the Jews are a disobedient and rebellious people. Nowhere in Scripture are Christians required to excuse and condone their evil deeds simply because of their nationality.

Jesus knew better than anyone else the unspeakable crimes of which these people are capable. It was to them that He addressed the following powerful polemic:

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! And say, if we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. Fill up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

In this indictment Jesus lays the charge of persecuting the prophets at the door of the Jewish people. It is by far the most severe, denunciatory and withering blast of language which fell from His lips during the entire thirty-three years that He was in the flesh.

The Jesus of this, the twenty-third chapter of Matthew, is not the quiet, reticent Jesus of modern literature and the fashionable pulpit. The Jesus, whose righteous indignation is here asserted, is a man of words and action, a man in the act of pronouncing eight woes upon the Jewish leaders and finally condemning them to the damnation of hell.

In the next breath Jesus affirms His Godhead and says that He will soon send other messengers of God to them. He then predicts that they will treat His coming servants exactly like their fathers treated the prophets.

"Behold I send (or 'I am about to send') unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city; That upon you may come all the righteous bloodshed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar."

True to the Lord's promise, after His departure He sent the first group of messengers forth on the day of Pentecost. Others followed later. The book of Acts records the persecutions and deaths they suffered at the hands of the very Jews who declared they would not have been guilty of the similar conduct of their fathers.

It is particularly significant to notice that Jesus blamed the Jews for the murder of Abel. But how could this have been in view of the fact Abel was a son of Adam and Eve, whereas the Jews date their origin from Abraham about nineteen hundred years before the birth of Christ?

By way of parenthesis, it should be remarked that the name Jew did not originate until a few hundred years after Abraham. It was first used in the book of second Kings as a reference to the patriarch Judah in distinction from the other ten tribes of Israel. Later the term became the appellation of the whole nation.

When Jesus accused them of killing Abel, He was seeing beyond their particular nationality. He was seeing beyond the garb of flesh which they were wearing.

He was looking deep into their souls. He was seeing the demonic poison which was stored up in their life stream. He knew that the same satanic hatred for the program of God which took the life of Abel was to reach its climax in the murder of the Messiah and His apostles. Hence the judgment which He pronounced upon them: "How can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

To grasp the full meaning of the above reference to Abel, one needs to understand that from Eden to Bethlehem's manger there runs a perfect avenue of divine heredity. This path of the ages, carved straight through the human family, may be likened to the Gulf Stream which plows its way across the ocean. The conflict of the centuries is the fact that Satan tried repeatedly to break the royal line so the Redeemer of the world could not be born.

Early in Genesis, after the fall of man, it was announced that the "seed of the woman" would bruise the serpent's head. This is the first reference in Scripture to the virgin birth of Christ. Eve was given to understand that a male child, a descendant of hers, would break Satan's power in the world.

When Cain, the first child was born, it is evident that Eve thought he was the one who would destroy the serpent, then and there, because she said: "I have gotten a man from the Lord." This was a mistake for the reason that a study of Cain's life shows him to have been full of hereditary poison. He was guilty of six specific sins: he worshipped in self-will, was angry with God, refused to bring a sin-offering, lied to God, would not repent, and murdered his brother.

Abel, the second son, was in the blood-line between Eden and the manger. It was for this reason that Satan inspired the killing of Abel so the line would be broken. Seth was born later to repair the damage. After that, the two lines, ran in parallel until the deluge—the Sethites and the Cainites.

Noah, Shem, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, David, and many others, were in the royal line from which the promised Redeemer was finally born.

Now, in the twenty-third chapter of Matthew, we find Christ charging the Jews with the same sin which was laid against Cain—namely, that they had become the instruments of Satan for the destruction of the plan of human redemption. The poison of the serpent had been handed down until that hour; it was flowing in their veins; the blood of the righteous Abel was upon them; they were cooperating with Satan; they had permitted themselves to become a party to the same crime of which Cain was guilty; they were trying to destroy the Saviour of the world even as Cain tried to destroy the line from which the Redeemer was to be born.

When these facts are understood, this chapter becomes truly pathetic. There Jesus stands in the temple dedicated to the worship of the true God. He is confronted by a crowd of blind and impure hypocrites. Sinless anger burns on His face as His eyes melt into anguish and misery. From the hill on which the temple is situated he looks down upon the city spread before and beneath Him. He cries out: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that kill—eat the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!"

Then once more addressing the Jews, He cried: "Behold your house is left unto you desolate."

As Jesus walked down the steps that day, the people only saw a simple man leaving the temple, but the angels saw the God of Heaven forsaking it. As an example of how the Jews treated the prophets, Jesus cited the circumstance of Zacharias being slain between the temple and the altar. This takes us back to the twenty-fourth chapter of second Chronicles.

Baal worship had invaded Israel. Athaliah, the daughter of Jezebel, exalted herself to the throne of David. She caused all the male members of the royal family to be put to death except Joash, the six year old son of King Asaziah, who was hidden away secretly by the good priest Johoiada.

In this revolution which overtook his nation, Johoiada showed great tact and ability. He waited until public sentiment became ripe for a change, then on a certain day when a large crowd was assembled in the temple court he displayed the child and drove Athaliah from the throne.

Soldiers had been previously concealed in the temple and were armed with weapons. At the proper moment, Johoiada released his private army from hiding and stationed warriors at the various places of entrance so no one could leave or enter the court.

The power of idol worship was thus broken, with a single stroke, in Israel. Athaliah with Mattan, her chief prophet of Baal, were put to death.

Johoiada died at the age of one hundred and thirty. As a signal honor he was buried "in the city of David among the kings."

Zechariah was the son of Johoiada and succeeded his father as the leading priest of Israel.

Because Zechariah dared to rebuke the Jewish leaders for their apostasy, King Joash had him put to death. "And the spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? Because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the Lord. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada, his father, had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it."

In less than a year from the time that Zachariah was killed, the Syrian armies overran Jerusalem and massacred the people. Joash was later put to death.

On the eventful day, when Jesus stood before the Jews who thirsted for His blood, He reviewed this bit of Israelitish history by reminding them of their crimes against the prophets of old.

The Jews and Jesus Christ...

Speaking to the sect known as the Pharisees, Jesus said: "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it."

The Pharisees wielded a satanic influence over their nation. They represented a system of occultism mingled with Jewish doctrines and beliefs. They poured a constant stream of poison into the thinking of Jewry which twisted and perverted the minds of the rank and file of people.

Although the Sadducean high priests were the head of the Sanhedrin, the decisive influence upon public affairs was in the hands of the Pharisees.

The People's Bible Encyclopedia says: "They had the greatest influence upon the congregations, so that all acts of public worship, prayers, and sacrifices were performed according to their injunctions. Their sway over the masses was so absolute that they could obtain a hearing even when they said anything against the king or the high priest. Hence the Sadducees, in their official acts, adhered to the demands of the Pharisees, because otherwise the multitude would not have tolerated them."

As a Jew avoided as far as possible all contact with a Gentile, lest he should thereby be defiled, so did the Pharisee avoid, as far as possible, contact with the non-Pharisee, because the latter was to him unclean even though a Jew. The egotism of the sect is at once evident.

There is no way of calculating the demoralizing influence that this group of men had upon the people who looked to them for leadership. In tracing the origin of this organization we find that it began back in the occult demonism of the Chaldean sooth-sayers.

General A. Netchvolodow says: "The Chaldean science acquired by many of the Jewish priests, during the captivity of Babylon, gave birth to the sect of the Pharisees whose name only appears in the Holy Scriptures and in the writings of the Jewish historians after the captivity (606 B.C.). The works of the celebrated scientist Munk leave no doubt on the point that the sect appeared during the period of the captivity.

"From then dates the Cabala or Tradition of the Pharisees... For a long time their precepts were only transmitted orally but later they formed the Talmud and received their final form in the book called the Sepher ha Zohar."

When the leaders of Israel contacted the occultism of the Chaldeans they brought a satanic element into Jewry which was in a great measure responsible for all of the subsequent crimes of the nation. The Pharisees carried on constant subversive activities against the Gentile peoples around them. They were, in a sense, the Communists of their day. To them, a Gentile was no better than a dog.

Josephus, the great Jewish historian, explains: "For there was a certain sect of men that were Jews, who valued themselves highly upon the exact skill they had in the law of their fathers, and made men believe they were highly favored by God. These are those that are called the sect of the Pharisees, who were in a capacity of greatly opposing kings. A cunning sect they were, and soon elevated to a pitch of open fighting and doing mischief. Accordingly, when all the people of the Jews gave assurance of their good-will to Caesar, and to the king's government, these very men did not swear, being above six thousand; and when the king imposed a fine upon them, Pheroras's wife paid their fine for them. In order to requite this kindness of hers, since they were believed to have the foreknowledge of things to come by Divine inspiration, they foretold how God had decreed that Herod's government should cease, and his posterity should be deprived of it; but that the kingdom should come to her and Pheroras, and to their children. These predictions were not concealed from Salome, but were told the king; as also how they had perverted some persons about the palace itself; so the king slew such of the Pharisees as were principally accused, and Bagoas the eunuch, and one Carus, who exceeded all men of that time in comeliness, and one that was his catamite."

Josephus also tells how the Pharisees were able to crowd their way into the lives of Gentile rulers to the point of gaining control of whole nations exactly as Jewish financiers and political leaders are doing today.

The following historical statement by Josephus, describing ancient Alexandra, at the time when Alexandra was ruling, sounds like it might have been written about some modern country: "These are a certain sect of the Jews that appear more religious than others, and seem to interpret the laws more accurately. Now Alexandra hearkened to them to an extraordinary degree, as being herself a woman of great piety towards God.

But these Pharisees artfully insinuated themselves into her favor by little and little, and became themselves the real administrators of the public affairs: they banished and reduced whom they pleased; they bound and loosed (men) at their pleasure: and, to say all at once, they had the enjoyment of the royal authority, whilst the expenses and the difficulties of it belonged to Alexandra. She was a sagacious woman in the management of great affairs, and intent always upon gathering soldiers together; so that she increased the army the one half, and procured a great body of foreign troops, till her own nation became not only very powerful at home, but terrible also to foreign potentates, while she governed other people, and the Pharisees governed her."

Thus we see how, back there, powerful Jews were able to rule from behind the scenes, pull wires and produce Gentile strife the same as they are doing today through their "Gentile fronts" among the various nations. We must always remember that it is natural for the Jewish people to have only contempt for Gentiles. They are possessed of a natural aversion for Christianity. When they gain control of a country, as in Russia at the present time, they never fail to vent their ill-will upon Christians.

From the foregoing, we now understand that the Pharisees represented the secret, sinister organization which existed for the purpose of opposing God and overthrowing all law and order. Out of their evil, occult program, there eventually came two documents known as the Kabbalah and the Talmud.

The Kabbalah governs the spiritual life of the Jews, while the Talmud regulates things material.

Concerning the writings of the rabbis which were added to the Old Testament Scriptures by these leaders, Josephus says: "What I would now explain is this, that the Pharisees have delivered to the people a great many observances by succession from their fathers, which are not written in the laws of Moses; and for that reason it is that the Sadducees reject them, and say that we are to esteem those observances to be obligatory which are in the written word, but are not to observe what are derived from the tradition of our forefathers."

It is believed by many that the Talmud and other writings of the Jewish leaders were directly responsible for the rejection of Christ. These "traditions" blinded the eyes of the people to a true understanding of the prophecies which related to the coming of the Messiah. They produced the hatred which finally resulted in the assassination of the Son of God.

Hence the words of our Lord: "Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?" And again: "Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition."

A few quotations from the Talmud will give an insight into the mental processes of the rabbis of all ages, and will show why these inhuman writings were objectionable to Jesus. Gentiles, realizing the sinister contents of these documents have sought at different times to destroy them. All copies were ordered burned by Philip IV, the Fair,

King of France, in 1306, but the book survived the flames.

The Jewish conception of God was that of a tyrant whose wrath had to be constantly appeased by the most rigid observances. He was confined, they believed, to the four walls of their own bigoted nationalism. Their contempt for other peoples is shown by quotations from the Talmud:

"You (the Jews) are human beings, but the nations of the world are not human beings but beasts."

"On the house of the Goy (non-Jew) one looks as on the fold of cattle." The Talmud declares all non-Jews to be inferior to the Jew. The white men to be cattle, The Negros are monkeys and Arabs are pigs.

The following prayer from the Talmud is quoted to the present day: "We beg Thee, O Lord, indict Thy wrath on the nations not believing in Thee, and not calling on Thy name. Let down Thy wrath on them and inflict them with Thy wrath. Drive them away in Thy wrath and crush them into pieces. Take away, O Lord, all bone from them. In a moment indict all disbelievers. Destroy in a moment all foes of Thy nation. Draw out with the root, disperse and ruin unworthy nations. Destroy them! Destroy them immediately, in this very moment!"

"It is more wicked to protest the words of the rabbis than of Torah (law of Moses)."

"The decisions of the Talmud are words of the living God. Jehovah himself asks the opinion of earthly rabbis when there are difficult affairs in heaven."

"Jehovah himself in heaven studies the Talmud, standing: he has such respect for that book."

The Talmud teaches that the Jewish nation is the only nation selected by God, while all the remaining ones are contemptible and hateful. That all property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without scruples. That an orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards people of other nations, and on the contrary, he even ought to act against morality, if it is profitable for himself or for the interest of Jews in general. Continuing quotations from the Talmud:

"A Jew may rob a Goy, he may cheat him over a bill, which should not be perceived by him, otherwise the name of God would become dishonored."

"It is permitted to kill a Jewish denunciator everywhere... it is permitted to kill him before he has denounced... though it is necessary to warn him and say, 'Do not denounce.' But should he say, 'I will denounce,' he must be killed, and he who accomplishes it first will have the greater merit."

"How to interpret the word 'robbery'. A Goy is forbidden to steal, rob, or take women slaves, etc., from a Goy or from a Jew, but he (a Jew) is not forbidden to do all this to a Goy."

It would be a mistake to pass lightly over the satanic influence which the Chaldean priests wielded upon the Jewish leaders while they were in Babylon. This association of Jews with pagan magicians perverted the teaching of the Old Testament into murky materialism and brought the people under despotism of demonism.

In Scripture the Chaldeans are classed with the magicians, astrologers, soothsayers and sorcerers. Therefore, the inner circles of Jewish leaders in the days of Christ were nothing short of black magicians.

Is it reasonable to suppose that this hereditary poison which was handed down in the life-stream of Jewry, from the time of the Old Testament prophets, has ceased to exist?

The common-sense answer is No. We have with us today the same kind of human "vipers" that Christ had to contend with nineteen hundred years ago. They constituted the scheming, tricky group which stirred up the mobs that screeched for the destruction of the Son of God. They uttered the most vicious cry that ever fell from human lips: "Crucify him! Crucify him!" "Then Pilate said unto them. Why, what evil hath he done?" And they cried out the more exceedingly, "Crucify him."

Had Christ shown hatred toward the Gentiles, started a revolution, organized an army, marched on Rome and promised to give the Jews earthly power, they would have accepted Him as their Messiah and King. But they rejected Him because He said: "My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews."

It was a tragic night when our Lord went into the garden of Gethsemane for His final season of prayer before facing Calvary. Three times He prayed: "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt."

Prior to this time, certain Jewish leaders had approached one of the disciples with a financial offer if he would only lead the mob to the place where the Saviour had secluded Himself for the evening.

The Jews possess rare ability for stirring up strife among the Gentiles. They know exactly how to create confusion and unrest. They are experts in arousing human passions by producing mob psychology. They are able to stampede crowds into croaking special phrases like frogs.

We see this today in the streets of the large cities of the world where throngs of unemployed men congregate, carrying banners, and repeating slogans. Little do these mobs know that behind their misery there are usually Jewish Capitalists who have deliberately planned the abnormal economic conditions which produced their suffering? Little do these mobs know that at the top of their Communist organizations there are powerful, but diseased, Jewish minds.

Judas told the conspirators that the One Whom he should kiss would be Jesus. So, the deceiver drew near, sneaking like a serpent through the undergrowth and shrubbery of the garden. Reaching the Master, he greeted Him with a familiar oriental salutation consisting of a gentle embrace and a kiss on the cheek.

In a few minutes the Lord was entirely at the mercy of the savage pack of Jewish wolves. They were determined to do away with Him. This was the world's blackest night.

First the innocent Victim was taken to the home of Caiaphas, the high priest, then to the Sanhedrin, and finally to Pilate's Court. All three of these trials were illegal, both Jewish and Roman laws were broken.

Meanwhile, Judas had collected the thirty pieces of silver due him for his part in the crime. He hurried quickly away from the mob, into the semi-darkness, down the path, and vanished from sight. At first he was inclined to congratulate himself on having made some easy money. This was before his conscience began lashing him.

Is it too much to suppose that Judas soon discovered that he had blood on his lips?

Yes, his mouth was moist. He found his lips were bloody. Only a few minutes ago, he had kissed the cheek of the Son of God. And the sweat which bathed the Lord's face had been great drops of blood.

It was true that blood was oozing through the pores of the Lord's body at the time of the fatal kiss. Medical science declares that only one thing can produce a bloody sweat—namely, a broken heart.

In the sad hour of the garden prayers, Jesus loved the world so much, so deeply, that the physical organ in His breast could not stand the strain; it actually collapsed. His heart could not stand the outburst of emotion. It was literally, physically ruptured. And this sad experience fulfilled Psalms 69:20: "Reproach hath broken my heart." When the heart collapsed from the deep emotional impact, blood naturally dripped through the pores of His flesh.

Let sinners remember that this was the way Jesus Christ loved them just before He went to Calvary to suffer for the sins of the world.

Try to imagine the feelings of Judas when he discovered the blood of the Master on his lips, poor conscience stricken creature!

Back to the Jewish leaders he ran. "I have sinned", he cried "in that I have betrayed innocent blood."

"What is that to us?" the Jews replied scornfully. "See thou to that."

Then the cringing betrayer literally threw the thirty pieces of silver on the floor of the temple, and fled from the presence of the vicious priests. "I have betrayed innocent blood," he sobbed.

Judas was found dead a few hours later, having committed suicide.

Special notice should be taken of the word "innocent". The last thing the betrayer did before he died, was to declare that Jesus Christ was guilty of no wrong, that He had committed no sin, that He was living a clean, pure, innocent, sinless life.

Had Jesus been guilty of one sin, Judas would have known about it and would have used it to justify his heinous crime in that tragic hour. The immaculate life that the Master lived while in the flesh is an unanswerable argument for His Immaculate Conception and Godhead.

Yes, this innocent, sinless Man from heaven was subjected by Jews, to every conceivable indignity, and because of their demands was finally put to a horrible death on a disgraceful cross like a common criminal.

"They hated me without a cause..." John 15:25

Lastly, the Jews and the Persecution of the 1st Century Church

In the parlance of the street the Jew is sometimes called a "Christ hater." The spirit of Judaism is one of direct antagonism to the principles of Christianity.

It is not difficult to understand why an apostate people, who have rejected their Messiah, should continue in spiritual darkness and despise everything that bears His name. No sooner had the tomb of Christ been sealed than the tormenters set out to destroy His followers. This assault has continued straight through the centuries, until now it has come into fruition in the form of international Jewish Communism.

In the first twelve chapters of the book of Acts, five specific persecutions, sponsored by Jews against the infant Christian Church, are recorded. Failing to blot the new religious conception from the face of the earth by putting its Leader to death, they invented every conceivable scheme for torturing and murdering those who pledged allegiance to His plan for redeeming the world from the curse of sin.

The Jews regarded Christianity as being an illegitimate child of Judaism. Therefore, in their hatred, they believed it to be their solemn duty to stamp it out. After the divine visitation at Pentecost, so many thousands of Jews were converted that the leaders became alarmed.

One thing stood in their way—the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Had His body remained in the tomb, they would have found it easy to combat the new Faith which had suddenly sprung into existence. But with the resurrection being discussed on every side, they found themselves confronted with an insurmountable difficulty. When first faced with the fact of the empty tomb they did not hesitate to resort to deliberate falsehoods.

"And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying, say ye His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day."

The first few months of the Church's history witnessed five distinct persecutions. What the Cause of Christ has endured at the hands of Jews, through the centuries, far surpasses anything the Jewish people have suffered from Christians.

The attitude of the Jews toward the early Church reminds us that there would be no Christianity in the world today had Paul and others not taken the Gospel message to the Gentiles.

First persecution: Acts 4:1-22. A pitiful beggar, a man born a cripple, was placed near the gates of the Jerusalem temple every day to beg for alms. On a certain occasion, as Peter and John were about to enter, the poor, helpless creature stretched forth a dirty, bony arm and pleaded for a coin.

"Silver and gold have I none," said Peter, "but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk."

Instantly the resurrection life of Christ smote the recipient of divine mercy and he jumped to his feet "walking, and leaping, and praising God." The man was more than forty years of age and had therefore been a familiar object on the streets of Jerusalem for years.

This miracle caused a great stir throughout the city. Large crowds of curious people gathered around the apostles and the healed beggar.

Peter was quick to take advantage of the opportunity and turned the occasion into a sermon. "Why marvel ye at this?" he asked, and then explained that a far more wonderful miracle had occurred a short time before in Jerusalem—namely the resurrection of Christ from the grave.

When the report of this healing reached the treacherous Jews, their minds got busier than ever. They began devising new plans for putting an end to everything that was being done in the name of Christ.

Their first thought was to deny that the miracle had been performed. Then they realized that this was useless because the man was so well known. At that moment he was rejoicing, praising God, testifying to his deliverance and telling everybody what had happened. "And we cannot deny it," mourned the Jews who would have lied to discredit the story if it would have advanced their selfish purposes.

The members of the Sanhedrin came together and the little band of Christians were forced to appear before them. A torrent of abuse was turned loose upon the trembling group until finally Peter, "filled with the Holy Ghost," became bold. As spokesman for the group, he made it clear that the Christians proposed to obey God rather than man.

Had it not been that the mobs were at that time favorable toward the apostles because of the miracle which had been performed, the Jewish leaders would have no doubt put the entire body of believers to death.

Second persecution: Acts 5:17-42. "Many signs and wonders" were wrought among the people by the apostles. All manner of diseases were healed. But the Jews could see no good in any of this relief of human suffering because it did not come through the narrow, selfish channels of their bigoted nationalism.

The leaders agreed to the use of physical weapons in their attempt to destroy spiritual power, the same as Communists are doing today in trying to exterminate Christianity by killing Christians.

Repeated acts of supernatural intervention preserved the early Church. Without divine assistance it would have perished. These early miracles confirmed the words of the Founder that the gates of hell would not be able to prevail against the Church.

The Jews "laid hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth." Next morning when the Jewish senate convened and messengers were sent to bring the apostles for trial, it was discovered that, unknown to the jailors, they had escaped and were at that very hour preaching in the area of the temple.

Jerusalem was in turmoil by this time. Had the officials dared, they would have killed the Christians without a legal trial. When the saints appeared before the tribunal they were told that they had been previously warned not to teach in the name of Jesus. "Ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us," said the high priest.

From this, it is evident that the apostles had been denouncing the Jews and charging them with the responsibility of Christ's death. Here we find the leaders complaining about His blood being upon them, forgetting apparently their previous utterance: "His blood be on us, and on our children."

It is to the credit of our spiritual ancestors that they were able to fill a whole city with the doctrines of Christianity in the face of such defiant opposition.

Peter finally dared to shout: "The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree." Next, he called upon his persecutors to repent of their sins. We read that this "cut them to the heart." Who was this upstart that he should have the audacity to rebuke them!

When they were almost ready to demand the lives of the apostles, Gamaliel, a tolerant member of the Sanhedrin, lifted a warning voice. If the new cult was not of God, he declared that it would come to naught and fall by its own weight. "But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God." At length, this line of common sense reasoning prevailed, and the passions of the leaders cooled a bit.

The result was, instead of killing the apostles they were given another warning and a severe flogging. This form of punishment was cruel, brutal, cowardly and unjust. But even though bitter and painful to the flesh, it caused rejoicing to the spirits of the faithful few. As the wounds healed they "rejoiced that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name."

The only way the Jews had of striking at the Christ Whom they hated was to injure His followers; they availed themselves of this opportunity.

Boldly and properly disregarding their illegal judges, the Christians kept on preaching Christ and reminding the Jews of their crimes against the government of God.

Third persecution: Acts 7:54-60. The blood of martyrs began flowing in the same year that the Lord ascended into heaven. The Jews' first victim after Christ was a man named Stephen, whose primary crime was belief in the deity of the Son of God. This was regarded as blasphemy.

The story of the murder of Stephen is one of the saddest in all the history of the Church. It is significant that a Hellenist, rather than an apostle, should have become the first Christian martyr.

Stephen was accused of three things: blaspheming God, setting aside the Old Testament, and belittling the Temple. Each of these charges was untrue. Even while lying witnesses were being introduced against him, the members of the Jewish counsel saw his countenance light up with a spiritual glow like "the face of an angel."

After listening to the charges, the priests asked their helpless victim: "Are these things so?" But instead of devoting himself to an answer of questions which everyone knew to be based upon falsehoods, Stephen entered into a discussion of Israelitish history and closed by rebuking his judges for their hypocrisy.

He declared that their devotion to God, the Law and the Temple, was hypocritical. Here are his words: "Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets have not your father's persecuted? And they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers."

Thus Stephen laid bare the full measure of their guilt. The blood of the Son of God was upon their heads; they had ignored the miracles which testified of His deity; they had rejected the Pentecostal program of the new Church; they had also spurned the wooing of the Holy Spirit. Before God they stood condemned, and judgment was sure to overtake them! Taking no thought of his own safety, Stephen shot his words of truth, like barbed arrows, into the hard hearts of his merciless tormentors.

As he spoke, the Jewish leaders yelled and screamed to drown his words. They stopped their ears with their fingers to avoid hearing the truth about themselves. Like serpents they hissed their poison at the courageous Christian. They rushed upon him with one accord.

In their madness they dragged him outside the city, removing their outer garments as they ran. With stones they pelted the body of the first Christian martyr until his life ebbed away. This execution was illegal because the matter was not submitted to the Roman Governor.

Emulating the blessed Saviour, Stephen cried with a loud voice: "Lord, lay not this sin at their charge." "And when he had said this, he fell asleep."

Fourth persecution: Acts 8:1-3. The first three persecutions were spontaneous and did not result from deliberate planning. There had been no co-ordination of effort. Events had transpired so rapidly that there had been no time to sit down and quietly work out a concerted plan of attack.

But the spilling of Stephen's blood seemed to whet the Jewish appetite for more Christian suffering. From that hour, nothing but a terrible pogrom could possibly satisfy them. The sight of blood, the appearance of the first deadly wound in the flesh of a believer, seemed to stir all their criminal instincts.

They came to the conclusion that an organized effort was imperative if the new Faith was to be put down. Up until that time, their attempts to suppress the truth had proved ineffective. In searching for a persecutor who would be both cunning and brutal they selected a brilliant young rabbi by the name of Saul from the city of Tarsus.

It will be recalled that this was the young man who had guarded the coats of those who stoned Stephen. Saul stood grinning at the contortions of the martyr squirming and writhing in death agonies, under the barrage of rocks which were heaped upon him.

Jesus told his followers to go everywhere proclaiming the glad tidings. This was done following the Pentecostal harvest feast which brought Jews to Jerusalem from all parts of the civilized world. Those who accepted the Gospel message, on that great occasion, returned to their various communities to kindle spiritual fires.

Unwittingly, in the fourth persecution, the Jews contributed to the success of this very plan of evangelizing because when Saul began scattering believers, driving them from their homes, forcing them into exile, "persecuting them from city to city," every such Christian became an evangelist.

Until this time, the activities of the Christians had been confined for most part, to the city of Jerusalem and its immediate environs, although a skeleton of Church organization was set up reaching into other areas, resulting from the embers which blew in all directions after the experience Pentecost.

"As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison. Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word."

The very name Saul became a terror to the early Christians because of the heartless methods which he used. He and his helpers were happiest when they could rush into a house and catch a little group of believers in the act of worshipping—they would kill and wound some, banish others, and torture still others in ways too numerous and terrible for words.

The irony of this organized attempt on the part of the Jews to blot the cause of Christ out of existence was the fact that their own ring leader got gloriously converted on the road to Damascus and became the greatest missionary and evangelist the world has ever known.

But, in later years, Paul never forgave himself, nor was he ever able to erase the memories of his early attacks upon the little Church, which he came to love so dearly and for which he finally sacrificed his life.

Fifth persecution: Acts 12:1-19. The next spasm of Jewish terror, mentioned in the early part of the book of Acts, was directed against Peter. This persecution is of particular importance because it introduces a new element in the Jewish plan of destroying Christianity. It reveals the scheme, which was continued for hundreds of years, influencing Gentile rulers to do their dirty work for them.

During the first few centuries of Church history, when the pagans slaughtered Christians by the tens of thousands, a careful study will show that time and again the pogroms were precipitated by powerful Jews who were able to maneuver things from behind the scenes. They simply used pagans to carry out their crimes against Christians in the same manner that the player moves chessmen on the board.

St. Justin said in the middle of the second century: "The Jews were behind all the persecutions of the Christians. They wandered through the country, everywhere hating and undermining the Christian faith."

Tertullian said about the same time: "The Jews formed the breeding ground of all anti-Christian action."

A plain example of Jews causing unbelieving Gentiles to destroy Christians is to be seen in this, the fifth persecution. We read that Herod the king has James put to death by the sword because of Jewish influences being brought to bear upon his throne. This ruler was the grandson of Herod the Great who murdered the babes of Bethlehem after the birth of Christ. James was one of the three, with Peter and John, who enjoyed the sweetest possible fellowship with the Lord.

No details are given in the Scriptures about the killing of James. And yet underneath the simple statement, a deep anguish and sympathy may be felt. Then the next verse shows that the wicked king had planned to make away with Peter in the same way. "And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. And when he apprehended him, he put him in prison... Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him."

The Jews desired a public execution of Peter. They wanted his death to be viewed by all because he was one of the principal leaders of the despised Christians. This would give them a chance to gloat over their ability to wrap Gentile monarchs around their fingers. It was quite an achievement, in their estimation, to get a Roman king such as Herod, to do their bidding.

But a strange thing happened during the night proceeding the day when Peter was to be put to death. Another miracle occurred.

Although execution awaited him, the faithful apostle who spent the night chained between two soldiers, slept as sound as a babe. Suddenly a shaft of light shot into the darkened cell like a bolt of lightning and an angel smote Peter on the side. He dressed quickly and followed the heavenly visitor to the outer court, through the gate, and down the street. Not until then did he realize that his deliverance was real and not merely a dream.

Making his way to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, Peter found that an all-night prayer meeting was being held in his behalf. He came into the presence of the saints rejoicing "that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the Jews."

The angel smote Peter and the result was life and liberty. A short time later the same angel smote Herod and the result was disease, death and worms devouring his flesh. And this king was not the last to be cursed for allowing himself to come under the domination of Jews.

So Herod having consented to an ignominious death for Peter, himself suffered one much more ignominious.

More on the Jews and the Church...

The destruction of the Jerusalem Temple in A.D. 70 was a direct fulfillment of the prophecy made by Jesus in Matthew 24: 2 "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."

Naturally, when Titus plowed down this gorgeous structure, Christians hailed the event as a confirmation of the Lord's ability to read the future. This aroused ever increasing interest in prophetic subjects among the believers. The destruction of the Temple and the siege at Jerusalem resulted in the dispersion of the Jews. And wherever they went, they carried burning hatred in their hearts for the saints because they were constantly reminded that Christ had predicted their downfall.

Now, coming to the middle of the fourth century we find another example of Jewish influence over Gentile rulers, which is equally as remarkable as their control of King Herod.

For three hundred years, powerful Jews dispersed to all parts of the Roman Empire, kindled ill-will against the Christians, then came Emperor Constantine who reversed everything and made Christianity the official State religion of the nation. This was a rebuff to both the Jews and pagans who had used every conceivable scheme to destroy the Faith.

After the departure of Constantine from this life, his three sons ruled the Empire. Meanwhile the Jews bided their time, waiting for the right opportunity to place a Gentile in power that they could control. Their chance came, following the death of Constantine's last son, when Julian ascended to the throne.

Contempt for Christianity filtered through Julian's mind and he resolved, as soon as an occasion might arise, to deal it a final, crushing blow. He swore that when the time was ripe he would throw off the religious cloak of Constantine.

It remained for the Jews to produce a situation in which they could assist Julian in venting his spleen against the believers who were then growing strong both in numbers and spiritual strength, due to more than a half century of religious freedom. Happily for the Church, this Emperor reigned only two years, but those two years embodied a period of unspeakable agony.

Julian gave the Christians the name "Galileans" which, in his day, was a word that carried a slur with it. As if actuated by the spirit of anti-Christ he adopted the curious means of attempting to nullify the Bible prophecies. His contact with the Jews was no doubt responsible for this novel idea. Early training had taught him how to gain favor with Jewish leaders by insulting and tormenting the followers of Christ.

Neither Jews nor Christians had forgotten that the destruction of the Temple was a fulfillment of predictions made by the Lord. It was therefore decided that, as a slap at the Christians, Julian should rebuild the edifice in Jerusalem and turn it over to the Jews.

From all quarters of the Empire, Jews came to assist in erecting the building and to offer their wealth. Julian personally made the preliminary arrangements and sent one of his chief officers to superintend the work. The Jews who were directing affairs from within the shadows, shaping the official policies of the Empire, saw in this a deadly rebuff which promised to ultimately threaten the very existence of the Christian religion in the world.

Stirring scenes were enacted. Women brought their ornaments and jewels by the cartloads. So much precious metal was received that tools were even cast and forged of it. It looked to Jews and pagans as if the prophecies of the Bible relating to Palestine were going to be set aside.

But God intervened at the last minute and when the Temple was part way built a violent earthquake and severe electrical storm took place which demolished the whole undertaking. Fear came upon the Jews and the workers so that all activities were suspended. Not only Christian writers, but pagans as well, record this strange happening.

Julian was mortally wounded on the field of battle with the Persians a few months later. He became known in history as "the Apostate." It has been related that just prior to his death, he cried: "Thou hast conquered after all, O Galilean."

Church leaders, through the age, have been alert to Satan's use of the Jewish people in thwarting the program of Christ in the world. Some Christians have been more outspoken than others, on the subject, but every generation has produced its watchmen who have known the truth and have dared to proclaim it. Among the more bold spokesmen on this question was Martin Luther who prepared a treatise entitled, The Jews and Their Lies. In it we read the following statements which are characteristic of the entire discussion:

"How the Jews love the Book of Esther, which is so suitable to their bloodthirsty, revengeful, murderous appetite and hopes! The sun has never shone on such a bloodthirsty and revengeful people, who fancy themselves to be the chosen people so that they can murder and strangle the heathen.

"No folk under the sun is more greedy than they are, than they have been and always will be, as one can see from their accursed usury. They console themselves that when their Messiah comes, he will collect all the gold and silver in the world and divide it amongst them.

"The Princes and authorities sit and snore with open mouths and let the Jews take, steal and rob what they want out of their open purses and chests; i.e.—they let themselves and their subjects be skinned and sucked dry by the Jews' usury, and make themselves, with their own money, beggars in their own State... The Jews have got our money and property, and are therefore our masters in our own land.

"It all agrees with the judgment of Christ that they are poisonous, bitter, vindictive, and malicious serpents, assassins and children of the devils who kill and inflict injuries by stealth because they cannot do so openly.

Now that we have tasted a small portion of Church history let us see how these same enemies of Christ 2000 years ago are actually the unchanged enemies of Jesus Christ and Christianity today. It is the Jews who are spiritually degrading, molesting and destroying world governments and the church of the present.

Just how are these Khazar Jews toppling world governments and raping Christianity, the church today?

The Jews Are Raping America

There need be no confusion in the minds of Christians when it comes to the fundamentals of the faith. This confusion would not exist if it were not for those of the clergy who are allies with the enemy who seek to destroy them. There are countless Christians who are standing on the sidelines watching as their faith withers on the vine, and their freedom is about to drop into the laps of their enemies like overripe fruit. This cup will become bitterer when they realize that it is the ignorance and indifference of their spiritual leaders which has caused the deplorable condition of Christianity today. When Christians see their leaders in defeat on every front, they too will become confused and afraid. To stop this surrender, the clergy MUST make an about-face, no matter how painful it may be. They must take a stand against the invisible and intangible ideological war which is being waged against the Christian faith.

The utterance from the clergy which confuses Christians most and which is repeated from the pulpit and the printed page without ceasing is: "Jesus was a Jew. We must protect and help the Jews, no matter what they do because they are God's chosen people and if we do not help them, God will curse us." This is the teaching from the majority of Christian pulpits today. They completely ignore the definition of an "anti-Christ" as given in 1 John 2:22-23:

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is anti-Christ that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father. But he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.”

This couldn't be clearer, and it is certainly an accurate portrayal of Jewish thought today. In 2 John 10-11, Christians are given a stern admonition as to their attitude toward these anti-Christ's:

“If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, (that Jesus is the Christ) receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

The Jewish people of our day are no different from those Jews in Christ day that had Him put to death. Human nature has not changed and the Church of Jesus Christ is under an even greater assault from the Pharisees of Judaism.

From the time He was a mere infant until His death, our Redeemer and Saviour, Jesus Christ, was hated by the Jews. Herod, the Edomite king of Judea, attempted to kill Him by ordering all children to be killed who were up to two years of age who lived in Bethlehem and the surrounding country. Matt. 2:16 On different occasions the Jews attempted to trap Him by their questioning, hoping He would violate some point of Law. They demanded His execution before Pilate. The New Testament bears witness to their undeniable hatred.

Once Christ began preaching the Kingdom of God, most of the people who heard Him were indifferent. A mere handful believed Him. In Acts 1:15, we find only 120 people were gathered together when Peter addressed them. Even today, while millions gather in His name, most are indifferent. Few there are who are willing to meet the requirements He set forth in order to qualify as being His brothers and sisters. (Matthew 12:50; John 15:14)

Yet in spite of their indifference and lukewarm condition, these people don't hate Jesus enough to want Him killed; they just don't love Him enough to follow His instructions John 14:15.

During Christ's ministry, His most ardent and vehement opposition came from the Pharisees and their companions, the lawyers (scribes)! These people were known as JEWS, or more correctly JUDEANS. It was these JUDEAN Pharisees and scribes who sought to kill Jesus Luke 22:2; John 5:18. It is recorded that the conspiracy became so intense that Jesus would not walk in JEWRY (JUDEA) because the Jews sought to kill Him John 7:1.

The people we know today as JEWS are descendants of those ancient enemies of Christ, the JUDEANS. Whether or not they are racial descendants of those Pharisees is irrelevant, just as whether they are racial descendants of Abraham is irrelevant. The point is these modern-day lawyers and Pharisees, who say they are JEWS, are the SPIRITUAL descendants of the ancient Jews who sought to kill Jesus.

How then are they raping America? By deceptively declaring themselves to be patriotic Americans while at the same time their true allegiance is to Judaism and the dismantling of America's constitutional government. Their aim is to overthrow our form of government, its constitutional law and bring about a dictatorial Jewish leader and eventually a One World Government in which the Jew rules over. They do it by placing themselves in high government positions to change and hijack the country's rule of law. The following are a few of the ways the Jews are ruling America today and raping the freedom of its people. If necessary they have already changed the law where they can legally murder 200,000,000 Americans, many will be professing Christians:

See: Now the Government Can Legally Kill Christians

America's Betrayal by her own Elected Officials

Your U.S. government can now legally kill Christians for the "crime" of worshipping Jesus Christ! A diabolic deception has been perpetrated on the American people by their OWN leaders, Senators and Congressmen, who have sold their soul to the devil. On March 5, 1991, in the House of Representatives, and March 7, 1991, in the U.S. Senate, without any knowledge of, or input by, the people of the United States, U.S. Senators and Congressmen passed a law that is so outrageous – and frankly unconstitutional – that it forces the American people to be bound by a set of monstrous rules, called the Noahide Laws, rules that make the belief in Jesus Christ a crime punishable by decapitation by guillotine! On March 20, 1991, President George H.W. Bush, a supposed Christian, signed the bill into law. (Deanna's note: President George W. Bush follows in his father's footsteps.

"The language of the Resolution speaks for itself. But the consequences of their adoption is that the Seven Noahide Laws have been recognized by the Congress of the United States and the President of America as "the bedrock of society from the dawn of civilization" and the claim will be made that they are now the law of our land, the United States. Most Americans would be shocked to learn that the Babylonian Talmud, NOT the Old Testament, is the "Holiest" book of Judaism, and is the source of these Seven Noahide Laws, which provide a specific penalty for violating any of these Seven Noahide Laws, namely death by decapitation [Sanhedrin 57A]

Make no mistake about it, what appeared to be nothing more than a recognition of the eighty-ninth birthday of Rabbi Schneerson and the establishment of Education Day in the United States will be claimed by the proponents of this Resolution as the establishment of a law by which a Christian who worships Jesus Christ will be charged with idolatry and decapitated."

Well, just how do the Jews run America?

They control America by placing themselves in the highest positions in the country, money speaks; Politics, Financial Banking, Movie Production, Newspapers, Magazines, Journalism and so much more. It seems everywhere one turn a business is owned by the Jews.

Jews Control the Money

The Rothschild's, Goldman Sachs, and Warburgs of Hamburg are Primary Holders of the Federal Reserve Bank. Eight Jewish families own and control the Federal Reserve and the economic monetary system in this country.

Just about every member was Jewish. The same was true of both Bush's, Abomination's and now President Donald Trump, the Jews are out to under mind our country and their goal is to start a revolution here so they can take over power.

What's happening to This Country?

What do we do?

Where do we go?

By Lorraine Day, M.D.

There is nowhere to run, nowhere to hide. The Jewish Zionist/ Illuminati/ One World Government cabal owns the government and the money supply of virtually every country in the world, including the U.S. Government.

Where do we go for advice and direction? Who can we trust?

Will we ask the Government to save us? The government is responsible for the mess we're in. All governments LIE to their people. The elitists HATE the common man. Their goal is to destroy the vast majority of the population of the entire earth. The leaders of virtually every country on earth are part of this vast conspiracy to annihilate the population and take the whole world for themselves.

Are you going to put your trust in THEM?

It is precisely because the governments of the world have turned their back on the TRUE God that the world is in such chaos.

Will we turn to Psychics, Fortunetellers, and Witches – to save us? They all get their information from the same source as the government! Either they are frauds – scam artists – or they are hooked up with the Adversary, Satan and his demons. But Satan and his demons are the ones who actually control the Zionist Jewish/Illuminati/ One World Government cabal.

On the other hand, you may decide to rely on yourself, which will be just as foolish. Not one of us can foretell the future nor do we even claim to. Not one of us knows what will happen tomorrow, or even ten minutes from now. And people just like us are the source of all the problems in the world that we now have.

The Bible tells us that Jesus did not put his trust in “man” because He knew what was in man. (John 2:24,25)

“Man” does NOT know the future, nor does he even claim to be able to predict with absolute certainty what will happen. “Man” walks in darkness, but God DOES know the future.

So will we turn to God to save us? A God that few people, including Christians, have learned to know in a personal way, in a Father-son or Father-daughter relationship. Few Christians have learned to trust God with their life and the lives of their spouse and children!

It is not necessary to be a church-goer or a member of a religious denomination to be a believer in God. Christianity is not a religion. It is a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. This one-on-one personal relationship between us individually and Jesus Christ, is only hindered by an Organized Church, with its hierarchy, buildings, control, and institutionalized dogma.

Knowing what I know about the world, humanity, and the Adversary – Satan - I have opted to put my trust in God and take His advice.

But Does God Really Exist? Is He Interested in Each of Us Individually?

Since there’s nowhere else to turn, why not try to find out?

What Does the Bible Say About the Future?

The Bible tells us that things are only going to get worse – and worse – and worse - until the WHOLE WORLD will follow after, and be under the control of, the evil Beast Power – Jewish Zionism. (See Studies on Revelation – particularly Revelation, Chapters 6-10, 13, 14, 17 on www.goodnewsaboutgod.com)

The “Saints,” the TRUE Christians, will be given into the hands of that Beast power – Jewish Zionism - (Rev. 13:7) and those Christians who will not worship the beast power by declaring that the Jews are not only God’s “Chosen People” – God’s special pets - but that they are actually “God on earth,” will not be allowed to buy or sell (verse 16) and many will be killed (verse 15).

There will be severe famines (Rev 6:6,7) and massive epidemics of disease, death from wild animals – even in the cities, death by beheading (“by the sword”) (verse 8) and death from wars practically everywhere on earth. (verse 4).

Eventually the elements of the earth will melt with fervent heat (2 Peter 3:10,12) and there will be tremendous thunder, lightning and earthquakes – greater than any that have ever happened on the earth. (Rev 8:5; 11:13,19; 16:18.)

“Men’s hearts will be failing them for fear.” Luke 21:26

Because of their great fear, men “will call for the rocks and mountains to fall on them.” Rev. 6:16

This is a tremendously frightening picture and again confirms that we CANNOT trust in “man.” After all “men’s” hearts will be failing them for fear.

There’s no help there.

What Does God Say?

The Bible is filled with God’s promises to “never leave us or forsake us,” and His command to us is to “Fear Not” precisely because He knows what will happen in the coming times. If we do not prepare by learning to know the Lord in a very personal way now, so personal that we can trust Him with our very life, we too will be so consumed by fear that we will call for the rocks and mountains to fall on us.

But God promises to be with us. That will bring us peace, but only if we truly believe it. In order to believe it with all our heart, we must get to know God and learn to trust Him with all our heart.

Fear not, for I am with you. Be not dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you; I will help you; I will uphold you with my right hand of righteousness. Isaiah 41:10

For God has not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Timothy 1:7

Then you will call, and the Lord will answer; you will cry, and He will say, "Here I am." Isaiah 58:9

You will pray to Him, and He will hear you. Job 22:27

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27:1

Being fully persuaded that what He has promised, He is able also to perform. Romans 4:21

I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Isaiah 46:11

For I am the Lord, I change not. Malachi 3:6

I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me. Philippians 4:13

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in Him will I trust. Psalm 91:2

When you go through deep waters and great trouble, I will be with you. When you go through rivers of difficulty, they will not drown you! When you walk through the fire of oppression, you will not be burned up - the flames will not consume you. Isaiah 43:2

The righteous man has many troubles, but the Lord helps him through every one. Isaiah 43:2 LB

You are my hiding place; you shall preserve me from trouble; you surround me with songs of victory. Psalm 32:7

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46:1

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. . . Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for you are with me. Psalm 23:1,4

The Purpose of Life

We are on this earth for one reason and one reason only – to get to know God, to understand His character, to become ONE with Him, and to have Him put His character – His life - in us.

This only occurs through severe trouble – trials and tribulation.

That is why we are told to “Rejoice” and “glory” in our trials and tribulations (2 Cor 7:4; Romans 5:3) because they build character and help us learn to trust in God.

Christians say they trust God. But the proof of that trust or belief can only be confirmed if it is actually tested. The apostle Peter was certain that he would not betray Jesus under any circumstances, and boldly stated so. But when Peter was tested, he failed miserably – not once, but three times. (John 13:38)

Christians say they trust God to heal their disease (Psalm 103:3), yet they immediately trot off to the doctor, to follow the doctor’s way – man’s way - rather than following God’s way. Their actions prove that they trust in “man” irrespective of what they say.

Christians say they trust God for their safety, yet they believe in self-defense even with the use of a gun to kill another person. Their actions prove that they trust in “man” – in themselves – and not in God.

Christians often say, “God helps those who help themselves” and attribute that statement to God. But that is a quote from Benjamin Franklin, a member of the elitist Illuminati, the group that has been planning for hundreds of years to destroy all governments and religions and take over America and the world for themselves.

The truth is that God only helps the helpless - those who finally admit that they cannot help themselves – they are unable to run their own life. As long as we maintain our right to ourselves, as long as we believe we can solve our own problems, God can do nothing for us. Only when we come to the end of ourselves, when we have nowhere to turn, when we finally give up our right to ourselves and give it over to God, when we recognize our overwhelming need for Him to make all our decisions for us, will He then be able to direct our life.

It is virtually impossible for us to learn to trust God with our life when we’re in a crisis. In a crisis, we only plead for God to save us from disaster. Learning to trust the Lord is a result of getting to know Him in a close, personal way, the way we learn to trust our parents, our spouse, or a very close friend.

It is impossible to trust a stranger, or even a casual friend, with your life. We can learn to trust someone, a family member or close friend, only if we have known him for a long time and found him to be trustworthy repeatedly, someone who will always come through for us. That type of trust cannot be established in a moment, it takes time – a long time.

Trusting God with our life, trusting God with the life of our husband or wife, trusting God with the lives of our children, can only occur if one learns to know God over a long period of time by diligent, daily, Bible study and prayer when we are not in a crisis. It can only occur if we have experienced and confirmed God’s trustworthiness repeatedly in less dire, non-life-threatening, circumstances.

The world does not think it strange when a man cries out for God when he is in fear for his life. But the world does look with contempt on a man who relies totally on God when his life is not in danger. The world erroneously classifies that as weakness.

How Bad Will the Time of Trouble Be?

1) It will be the worst that the world has ever seen since the flood of Noah’s time when the whole world, except a family of 8, were destroyed. (There were no nations before the flood.)

“ . . . and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation. . . ”
Daniel 12:1

- 2) There will be no peace on the whole earth, and they will kill one another. Rev 6:4
- 3) There will be severe famines. Rev. 6:6,8
- 4) There will be epidemics of deadly diseases. Rev. 6:8
- 5) People will be killed by wild beasts. Rev. 5:8
- 6) All the fish in the sea will die. Rev 16:3
- 7) The fresh waters for drinking will be severely polluted and undrinkable. People will die of thirst. Rev 8:11; 16:4
- 8) Men will be severely tortured but not allowed to die. Rev 9:5,6
- 9) “Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! For the devil has come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.” Rev. 12:12
- 10) The Devil will be enraged with the true believers in Christ and will make war with them. Rev. 12:17
- 11) Satan will make war with the saints and overcome them. He will have power over all kindreds, and tongues and nations. Rev 13:7
- 12) Those who will not worship the beast power – Jewish Zionism - will be killed. Rev 13:15
- 13) Those who refuse to worship the beast power will not be allowed to buy or sell. Rev 13:17
- 14) “The heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.” 2 Peter 3:10
- 15) Human beings will be scorched with fire from the sun and great heat. Rev 16:8,9
- 16) There will be a great earthquake, “such as has not been since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.” Rev 16:18

Executive Orders That Have Already Been Signed by U.S. Presidents

10995 – Seizure of all communications media.

10997 – Seizure of all electric power, fuels, minerals, public and private

10998 - Seizure of all food supplies and resources both public and private, all farms and all farm equipment.

10999 – Seizure of all types of transportation, including personal cars, trucks, or vehicles of any kind, and total control over the highways, seaports, and waterways.

11000 – Seizure of all civilians for work under Federal supervision. This includes the splitting of families and children from their parents.

11001 – Seizure of all health, education and welfare facilities, both public and private.

11002 – All people in the United States to undergo mandatory registration at the United States Post Offices.

11003 – Seizure of all aircraft and all airports.

11004 – Authorization for forced relocation.

11005 – Seizure of all railroads, waterways, and all storage facilities, both public and private.

11051 – Authorization to put “executive orders” into effect in “times of increased international tension or financial crisis.”

It is clear that in a time of crisis, even one manufactured by the globalists, you own nothing, not even your children or your own life.

Persecution of Christians is Already Happening in Many Countries

China: Christians are beaten, imprisoned and tortured in China today.

(<http://www.christianitytoday.com/ct/2000/march6/6.70.html>)

Turkey: Torture of Christian missionaries has included disembowelment, emasculation (cutting off of the male genitalia), and the slicing open of various orifices before they were killed by cutting their throats.

(<http://www.christiantoday.com/article/turkey.christian.missionaries.horrifically.tortured.before.killings/10523.htm>)

Pakistan: Lawyers in Pakistan are investigating a report that up to 30 men tortured and gang-raped a young Christian man for refusing to convert to Islam. The victim was seriously injured and unable to move. However, according to the Center for Legal Aid Assistance and Settlement (CLAAS) the police are keeping him locked up and have denied him medical treatment. The police are also refusing to register the rape following a counter-claim made by his principal attacker – “a man of influence.”

North Korea, China, Vietnam, Laos, Cuba, Bangladesh, Sudan, Saudi

Arabia: "There are considerable challenges ahead in the 21st century," states the Voice of the Martyrs website. "The countries newly liberated from communist oppression remain devastated from decades of terror. China, as well as North Korea, Vietnam, Laos and Cuba are caught in the mouth of a communist dragon. There are Muslim strongholds like Bangladesh, Sudan, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Indonesia, Iran and Nigeria" according to Todd Nettleton, The Voice of the Martyrs' director of news services.

"We have big operations in China, Saudi Arabia, North Korea," he said. "When you talk about the worst offenders, Saudi Arabia and North Korea are the most closed nations for Christians to practice their faith."

Persecution of Christians in Sudan

There is an abundance of evidence since the early 1990s of oppression and persecution of Christians, including by Sudan's own Sudan Human Rights Organization, which in mid-1992 reported on forcible closure of churches, expulsion of priests, forced displacement of populations, forced Islamisation and Arabisation, and other repressive measures of the Government. In 1994 it also reported on widespread torture, ethnic cleansing and crucifixion of pastors. Pax Christi has also reported on detailed cases in 1994, as has Africa Watch. Roman Catholic bishop Macram Max Gassis, Bishop of El Obeid, also reported to the Fiftieth Session of the UN Commission on Human Rights, in Geneva, in February 1994 on accounts of widespread destruction of hundreds of churches, forced conversions of Christians to Islam, concentration camps, genocide of the Nuba people, systematic rape of women, enslavement of children, torture of priests and clerics, burning alive of pastors and catechists, crucifixion and mutilation of priests. The foregoing therefore serve to indict the Sudanese Government itself for flagrant violations of human rights and religious freedom.

In addition, it is estimated that over 1.5 million Christians have been killed by the Janjaweed, the Arab Muslim militia, and even suspected Islamists in northern Sudan since 1984.^[2]

It should also be noted that Sudan's several civil wars (which often take the form of genocidal campaigns) are often not only religious in nature, but also ethnic, as many black Muslims, as well as Muslim Arab tribesmen, have also been killed in the conflicts.

It is estimated that as many as 200,000 people had been taken into slavery during the Second Sudanese Civil War. The slaves are mostly Dinka people.

U.S. and Allies Torture of Germans

The U.S. Government tortured innocent German civilians after World War II, under our Jewish President Dwight Eisenhower (Eisenhaur).

“The most riveting account of post-war retribution was a Soviet-inspired genocide documented in a 1993 book titled "An Eye for an Eye: The Untold Story of Jewish Revenge Against Germans in 1945" by John Sack. Soon after occupying Poland and East Germany, the Soviets established the Office of State Security and deliberately recruited Holocaust survivors, primarily Jews, to “de-Nazify” some 10 million Germans residing in the area. Office personnel rounded up German men, women and children, 99 percent of whom were innocent non-combatants, and trucked them to cellars, prisons and 1,255 concentration camps where between 60,000 and 80,000 perished as a result of torture, starvation and typhus. Tragically, the West was aware of these atrocities - they were referenced in the Congressional Record of August 2, 1945, and Mr. Churchill condemned them in the House of Commons on August 16 - but nothing was done. At the time, few people really cared what happened to Germans who, after all, (supposedly) had started World War II. (See the following link: <http://www.goodnewsaboutgod.com/studies/political/jewsdeclarewar/jewsdeclarewar.htm>)

John Sack, a Jew, spent seven years of research in Poland, Germany and Israel to write his 252-page book, which contains 65 pages of notes. He focused on the most brutal of the Jews, referring to them by their given names, Lola, Pinek, Shlomo, Moshe, etc. Most of them immigrated to America, Canada and Israel, where they prospered in various occupations. In 1993, for example, Lola was a California CEO of a large company worth millions. Moshe was in the construction business in Linden, N.J. All were interviewed extensively by Mr. Sacks.

Not surprisingly, the book was condemned by Jewish scholars who called it "an audacious lie," "vile docudrama" and "anti-Semitic fodder" even though it was thoroughly researched and written by a fellow Jew! In a 5,000-word onslaught that appeared in the New Republic, Daniel Goldhagen described the work as "widely out of focus," "not beneath resorting to outright fictionalization" and the result of "sheer inventions." In his controversial book "Hitler's Willing Executioners: Ordinary Germans and the Holocaust," Mr. Goldhagen later explained the Holocaust as the result of a "long-incubating, pervasive, virulent, racist, eliminationist, anti-Semitic German culture." National groups who aided the Germans in slaughtering Jews - primarily Ukrainians, Latvians and Lithuanians - Mr. Goldhagen continued, also "came from cultures that were profoundly anti-Semitic." Genocide against Jews, according to the new disputed "Goldhagen thesis," is the result of a long-nurtured ethno-national predisposition.

Following the uproar, Piper Verlag, a German publisher, abruptly canceled distribution of Mr. Sack's book and promised to recycle the 6,000 copies already printed in Germany because it could be "cause for some misunderstanding." Unbowed by the attacks, Mr. Sack believes he "had a moral duty" to write what he did.

A significant figure in Mr. Sack's book is Shlomo Morel, who ran an internment camp for German civilians in the Polish community of Schwientochlowitz. He lost his father, mother, brothers, uncles, aunts and all but one cousin during the Holocaust. He joined the Soviet-supported Jewish partisans and once the Soviets drove the Germans out of Poland, he became, at the age of 26, commandant of the camp. John Sacks describes the horrors experienced by the Germans at Shlomo's camp: "The guards put the Germans into a doghouse, beating them if they didn't say 'bow-wow.' They got the Germans to beat each other; to jump on each other's spines and to punch each other's spines and to punch each other's noses, and hit the Germans so hard that they once knocked a German's glass eye out. The guards raped the German women ... and trained their dogs to bite off the German men's genitals at the command of 'Sic.' And still 3,000 remained, and Shlomo hated them more ... hated them for not dying compliantly ... In time, three-fourths of the Germans at Shlomo's camp were dead ... and Shlomo still wasn't satisfied with his score."

Today, Shlomo Morel leads a comfortable life in Israel. In December, the Polish prosecutor's office in Katowice charged Shlomo with crimes against humanity and demanded that Israel extradite him to Poland. Israeli authorities refused, informing the Polish Ministry of Justice that his alleged crimes are not perceived as genocide in Israel and are therefore subject to the statute of limitations. Apparently, according to Israeli reasoning, killing innocent Jews for no reason is genocide. Killing innocent Germans for no reason is not.

Dr. Lubomyr Luciuk, research director of the Ukrainian Canadian Civil Liberties Association, has condemned Israel's double standard. "How can organizations like the Simon Wiesenthal Center, or B'Nai Brith, or the World Jewish Congress, who have together orchestrated such a concerted demand for bringing alleged Nazi war criminals to justice, now allow such rank hypocrisy in Israel to go unchallenged?" he asks. It's not a rhetorical question." Faces and Places by Myron Kuropas

Persecution of Christians in the Soviet Union

After the Revolution of 1917, the Russian Bolsheviks, the vast majority of whom were Jews, undertook a massive program to remove the influence of the Russian Orthodox Church from the government and Russian society, and to make the state atheist. Thousands of churches were destroyed or converted to other uses, and many members of clergy were imprisoned for anti-government activities. An extensive education and propaganda campaign was undertaken to convince people, especially the children and youth, to abandon religious beliefs. The Communist persecution of the Church proved enormously successful. Within the span of one generation, the traditionally devout Russian people became overwhelmingly atheist. As such, it ranks as one of the greatest and the most successful persecutions Christianity had ever experienced, on par only with the destruction of Christianity in the Middle East, North Africa, and Asia Minor by the Islamic and Turkish conquests.

Interestingly, the Bolsheviks who completely destroyed the Christian churches chose to preserve the Jewish synagogues.

The Persecution of Christians in Israel

Government and Religious authorities carry on a constant campaign of persecution against parents who send their children to Christian schools. This is an example of this campaign: The Grand Rabbinate supported this campaign by an appeal in which it denounced the misdeeds of the Christian Mission. According to Hatsofe newspaper December 2, 1953 the Grand rabbinate appeal states: "The Christian Missions open under the feet of Jewish children the precipice of assimilation and of change of religion. Those who by attending these schools let themselves be drawn to change their religion become the enemies of our national existence. We want this appeal to reach all in Israel. We proclaim a special week for action and for information. We launch an appeal to collect the necessary funds for the realization of this action."

The newspaper Hatsofe supported the appeal by the Grand Rabbinate with an inflammatory racist remark.

"This action must be carried out with all possible vigor until the impurity is destroyed by fire from the face of the earth."

Large placards were displayed in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and other cities stating: "Do you know that 2,000 children receive Christian education in Israel? Do you know that 400 preachers and Christians sent by 48 Christian missionary institutions were recruited for the new immigrants? Mr. Amos Eylon published an article in Ha'aretz on March 14, 1954 in which he stated:

"Government employees as well as those working in municipalities who send their children to Christian schools were obliged under threat of being fired to transfer their children to Jewish schools."

A section was established in the Ministry of Religious Affairs for the object of fighting Christian missions. This section is sending spies into churches, monasteries, and Christian schools to detect who visit these Christian establishments and to take the names of all those who associate with, or send their children to Christian schools.

http://www.jerusalemmites.org/crimes/crimes_against_christianity/8.htm

While solid numbers are difficult to ascertain, it has been estimated that as many as 160,000 Christians are martyred each year worldwide.

But this will never happen in America, will it?

Yes, it will! The same forces who control ALL these other countries, also control America. The Zionist Jewish/Illuminati/New World Order controls ALL of the countries (above) that are brutally torturing and murdering Christians. They are dedicated to destroying ALL religions (especially Christianity) and ALL governments. Their ultimate goal is the forced worship of the Adversary, Satan (who they address as Lucifer) by the whole world.

What is now happening in Third World countries will soon come upon American Christians.

New Sophisticated Technology for Torture

New technology has been developed by the Jewish Zionist/Illuminati/New World Order that allows them to put a person in a room, fully restrain him or her, then pipe in extremely loud sounds of screeching animals and humans being slaughtered, hook the person up to a virtual reality apparatus that induces feelings of the most vile torture to all parts of his or her body causing the person to writhe in pain, and then they apply electro-magnetic fields that destroy the person's ability to think coherently, that induce mind control and overwhelming thoughts of suicide in the individual's mind and can cause horrifically frightening hallucinations of being ripped apart by a wild animal, or being eaten alive by insects.

When will all this happen?

Torture of Christians is happening right now in many parts of the world, as documented above. Revelation, Chapter 6, speaks of the involvement of a fourth of the earth:

“And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hades followed with him. And authority was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword (beheading), and with hunger, and with death (epidemic diseases), and with the wild beasts of the earth.” Rev 6:8

Then, in Revelation, Chapter 8, the torture and destruction expands to include a third part of the earth.

“The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burn up, and all green grass was burnt up.

And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood:

And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died: and the third part of the ships were destroyed.”

And the third angel sounded and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the springs of water, (fresh water supplies)

And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood: and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the waters became wormwood (bitter and undrinkable); and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was struck, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day had no light for a third part of it, and the night likewise.” Rev. 8:7-12

The Bible tells us in Rev. 16 that the plagues will include the whole earth – and soon after that occurs, Jesus will come back.

With the many countries shown above that are already torturing and murdering Christians, it is obvious that this persecution and torture involves at this time in earth’s history at least a fourth of the earth (Rev. 6), and possibly even a third of the earth (Rev 8). So we are very near the culmination of the prophecy of the whole earth being involved. The “whole earth” obviously includes the United States.

It is only a matter of time until these torture techniques will be used against American Christians.

The President of the U.S. and his Attorney General, controlled from behind the scenes by the Zionist Jews, have already endorsed torture in the prisons run by Americans at Abu Ghraib in Iraq, at the U.S. Naval Station in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, in Afghanistan, and in other places around the world.

Americans torturing their enemies is not new!

Will Christians Go Through the Tribulation?

Most mainstream Christian seminaries, pastors, and church members are willfully ignorant of the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation regarding the Time of Trouble (Tribulation) and the coming severe persecution and murder of true Christians. They know nothing of the Signs of the Times. They believe that the Second Coming of Christ could as easily occur tomorrow as a hundred years from now. It is no concern to them because they believe they are saved, and they (ignorantly) have no concern about a Time of Trouble of which they have never read, heard, or been taught by their naïve and unenlightened Church leaders.

Lutherans, in particular, are told that the book of Revelation should not even be in the Bible, so it should not even be studied because it cannot be understood. Because Martin Luther said - and believed that, Lutherans have accepted Martin Luther's word as truth instead of believing God.

On the other hand, the Evangelical Christians do study Revelation – at least superficially – but they interpret it literally, with their five senses, because they don't understand spiritual things. (1 Corinthians 2:14) They believe that the Tribulation will last for a period of seven years. But it has only passing interest for them because they believe they will be in heaven during that time “having a party” – having been raptured before the Tribulation has begun.

The Rapture has a large segment of Christianity confident, worldwide. Because Christians are uncomfortable with the possibility of these horrors of the coming time of trouble, they are ripe for the propaganda of their pastors who tell them they won't have to go through it. They have been deluded into believing that they will all be spirited off to heaven in the “Secret Rapture,” while others on earth are enduring great suffering!

There is no better way to produce weak “Christians.” They will be shocked by the persecution and totally unprepared for it. At the first difficulty, they will fall like a rock and embrace the side of the enemy. Their faith will be so puny that they will be putty in the hands of the Zionist Jewish/ Illuminati/New World Order.

In an interview with a Christian journalist, Harold Rosenthal, a Jew and assistant to then-Senator Jacob Javits of New York, said this:

"We Jews continue to be amazed with the ease by which Christian Americans have fallen into our hands. While the naive Americans wait for Khrushchev to bury them, we have taught them to submit to our every command." (This submission has been made possible by the gradual adoption of Talmudic concepts as being Christian, thus producing a Jewish society. It is what Rabbi Martin Siegel called, "the Judaization of Christianity.") From the booklet, Hidden Tyranny, by Walter White, Jr.

Since God is in Charge of Everything – Why Must We Go Through a “Time of Trouble”?

Non-Christians don't believe God exists. Or if they do believe God exists, they don't care, or don't believe that they need Him to run their life. On the other hand, Christians, DO believe that God exists. And they also believe that they trust God, meaning they believe that they have "faith" in God.

But "faith" must be tested.

Peter also believed in God. He was emphatic that he was willing to die for Jesus. But Peter's "faith" in Jesus had to be tested – and when it was – Peter realized that he failed miserably.

Our belief (faith) in God must also be tested, and it will be severely tested by a Time of Trouble worse than has ever happened since the Flood.

Are we able to trust God with our life, to stand up for our belief in Jesus Christ, when someone has put a gun to our head?

Are we able to trust God with the lives of our spouse and children, when someone has a gun to their head, threatening to shoot them in front of our eyes, if we refuse to give up our belief in Jesus Christ?

Are we able to trust God when we are told that we, and our children, will have NO food to eat, unless we give up our belief in Jesus Christ?

Are we able to trust God when our house is confiscated and we are thrown out on the street with no place to go, because we refuse to give up our belief in Jesus Christ?

Are we able to trust God when we – or our children – are threatened with torture, rape, and death, unless we give up our belief in Jesus Christ?

The only way we will know if we really trust God is if we are severely tested.

The Bible tell us:

“For He (God) is like a refiner's fire and like a laundry man's soap, and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver . . . and He shall refine them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness (right-doing). Malachi 3:2,3

God refines us through the trials and tribulations we encounter. If you deny Christ in order to have food, or to save your child's life, your spouse's life, or your own life, then you have immediately made a pact with the devil and you are no longer under the direction of God. You must realize that God loves your children more than you do and that eventually, “All things work together for GOOD, to them that love God.”

We just need to have the LONG view – all the way down to the consummation when God eventually will make everything right. (Please see “Is God a Killer God? What Happens at the Judgment? At www.goodnewsaboutgod.com)

The Great White Throne judgment mentioned in Revelation is not to annihilate those who don't love God – it is to allow them to “reap what they have sown” – but NOT to their eternal destruction. They will finally understand that they are unable to run their own life, and will have no place to turn except to Jesus Christ.

The “Judgment” is designed to turn people back to right-doing.

“But judgment shall return unto righteousness (right-doing). . .” Psalm 94:15

Judgment turns a person back to right-doing AFTER he has reaped what he has sown.

“. . . for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness (right-doing). Isaiah 26:9

They will learn to do RIGHT. They will NOT be annihilated! God truly is a loving God and He always has the best interest of ALL His children at heart – the one who love Him and the ones who (right now) don't.

If a person denies Christ the first time, it is easier to do it again – and again.

But if you fail the test the first time, you will be tested on that same issue again, and it will be even harder the second time – or third time.

Learning to trust God with our life and the lives of our children does not come in a moment. It must be developed and nurtured over a long period of time by daily Bible study and prayer, by learning to know God in a very personal way, by trusting Him to make every decision in our life – when we are NOT in crisis, by having the life of Christ in us, by becoming a totally New Creature in Christ.

Becoming a New Creature in Christ can only happen through “destruction.” Our “old man of sin” must be destroyed, so God can make us a New Creature in Christ.

The “Christian” Church talks a great deal about the Destruction of the Wicked in Hellfire. "Destruction" is a key term in the Bible used to support the teaching of either annihilation of the wicked or hell fire for eternity or "burning as long as one deserves." The term "destruction" leads to many differences of opinion. But most of the conclusions are not Scripturally based.

In the Bible, the word most frequently translated as “destruction” is the Greek word apollumi.

In order to understand exactly what the Lord is trying to teach us, we must understand the exact words that were inspired. The Bible was NOT written in English. It was written in Hebrew and Greek. We must look to the original language, the original words that God inspired, and let the Bible interpret itself. If we don't, then we are taking the words of man, a translation by committee consensus, as our guide rather than the Divine Word of God.

The proper definition of each word in the Greek is revealed when that specific word, such as apollumi, means the same thing each time it is used. Because the word apollumi is used to define a state of "having life" (the sheep was "lost" but alive - not dead), the word CANNOT also be used to define a state that is the OPPOSITE of life – DEATH – which is what the theologians would have us believe is meant in Romans 2:12 and 2 Peter 2:12, as shown above.

In other words, one specific word CANNOT mean both a state of life AND a state of death! It is obvious from these many uses of the word apollumi, that it CANNOT mean "to deprive of life." Clearly the Bible translators translated these passages according to their own preconceived theological beliefs.

Christians have assumed that the word "destroy" (apollumi in Greek) in Matthew 2:13 must mean "to deprive of life," but that definition has no support Biblically. There are Greek words that mean "to deprive of life." They are 1) apokteinco, which means "to kill;" 2) sphazoo, slay; 3) anaireoco, assassinate or massacre; or 4) phoneuco, which means murder. Apollumi is often used for things that have no life, such as wine skin bottles (Matthew 9:17, Mark 2:22 and Luke 5:37). These bottles do not "die" when they are "destroyed."

The woman looked for the coin that was "lost" (apollumi), NOT destroyed. (Luke 15:8-10) The woman found the coin. But the coin never had life so it could not be "deprived of life." It was just "lost" – waiting to be found.

A reward is not "mortal." See Matthew 10:42 and Mark 9:41 "Verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose (apollumi) his reward." And gold and money do not "die." In fact, they never had life. See Luke 15:8 and 1 Peter 1:7 "That the trial of your faith, being more precious than of gold that perisheth (apollumi)" The words that actually do mean "to deprive of life" could not be used in these passages. Neither the primary nor the secondary nor the tertiary, nor any other meaning of destroy demands that life be taken.

Apollumi is often used to describe something that either remains alive or has never had life. If the lost (destroyed?) sheep (Luke 15:4) had been "deprived of life," the shepherd would not have rejoiced when he found his carcass.

A word whose primary meaning is "to deprive of life" cannot have a secondary meaning of "continued life." "Death" cannot be just another form of "life." White is not another word for black. And life in any form is not expressed by a word that means death. Jesus said, "He who is finding his soul will be destroying (losing) it, and he who destroys (loses) his soul on my account will be finding it" (Matthew 10:39, Mark 8:35, Luke 9:24, Luke 17:33). Is Jesus urging them to commit suicide?

The destruction of the "soul" does not mean death. It means to disassemble or destroy the old man of sin, to destroy our carnal nature, to make us into a New Creation in Christ.

Romans 6:6 describes this process.

"Knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin."

The statement that the "Son of Man came to seek and to save that which is lost" (Luke 19:10) is the key to the meaning of apollumi. This Bible passage refers specifically to Zacchaeus, who was "lost" (often translated "destroyed"). But precisely BECAUS he was lost (destroyed?), he was ready to be found and saved.

The Greek word apollumi is often given an interpretation that means death from which there is no resurrection, or annihilation, a state from which salvation is impossible. But this passage in Luke 19:10 destroys this premise. Instead of the lost being beyond salvation, they alone are eligible for salvation! It is impossible to rescue a man who is already safe. It is only when he is in a "lost" condition denoted by the word apollumi that salvation can operate in his behalf.

The terms seek and save mean the opposite of destroy. So the one who is "destroyed," is really just lost, not annihilated, or no one would seek after him in order to save him. He must be in a state that needs salvation or Christ would not have come to seek and to save him. This passage proves beyond a doubt that "destruction" is a salvageable condition, not a state beyond the reach of salvation.

In addition, please notice that only the "lost" are saved. This fact reverses the usual idea of destruction. God seeks what He has lost! (All in All, A. E. Knoch)

Destruction is a relative term. The coin was lost (apollumi) in relation to the woman. The sheep was lost (apollumi) in relation to the shepherd. The prodigal son was lost (apollumi) in relation to his father. They were not dead, but they were away from the woman, the shepherd, and the father, respectively. Does this prove that they were outside the sphere of salvation? No, it actually proves the opposite. "Destruction" is the prelude to salvation! Destruction never means annihilation, irrespective of how closely it may seem to approach that idea in some cases.

Men are "lost" by God. It was He who created them. So He will be the great Loser if they are not saved. A sinner can never cross a line that brings him beyond the reach of God. Remember that Paul says.

"I am persuaded that neither death (whether the first or the second death) nor life nor principalities nor powers nor any creature (including Satan) can separate me from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus."

Romans 8:38,39

If we lose something, it becomes more valuable to us than when we had it. If one loses his eyesight, vision assumes an importance and value that the individual never before perceived. Its loss, instead of distancing us from it, actually increases our attachment to it. This becomes tragically true when we lose a loved one. We then realize the preciousness of our lost possession. So we should never assume that God is not concerned about those that are "lost." Nor should we assume that He will sit complacently while they rush on to eternal annihilation because He's helpless to turn them around. There are a million ways God is able to accomplish His will.

God is love and ALL of His creatures are precious to Him. God loves all of us. But whom does He say that he loves? God loves the world and sinners and His enemies and those who are lost. It takes "destruction" by trials and tribulations for us to feel our need for Christ to run our life, and it takes "destruction" to flood us with God's Divine love.

Because men are unable to accomplish all that they wish, they imagine that God also is unable to save the vast majority of humanity. This basic error has so warped the minds of men that they have corrupted the Scriptures to uphold it. All man knows how to do is to kill something that he cannot control, such as a hardened criminal. Is this God's way of handling the situation? God says,

"I'm not like You, My ways are higher than your ways and My thoughts higher than your thoughts" (Isaiah 55:9).

Christ proclaimed Himself as the Resurrection and the Life. How could the God of the Universe give up on and lose that which is the desire of His heart, those for whom He gave the life of His Son? Theologians have made a little man out of a great God. Where man is impotent, man imagines that God is also impotent. Where man is unable to succeed, man imagines that God is also unable to succeed.

Ephesians 1:11 says God is operating the universe "in accord with the counsel of His own will." And HIS will is that "NONE should perish, but ALL should come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9) We must recognize that destruction is a Divine process and a necessary part of the plan of salvation. Let us look at a few texts. Psalms 90:3, says

"Thou (God) turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men."

How can human beings return to God if they have been "destroyed," particularly if the term means annihilation?

In 1 Corinthians 5:5 Paul says, he is delivering "such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit (literal translation – breath) may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

One is "saved" by the process of "destruction," by destroying the old man of sin. And in 1 Timothy 1:20, Paul is charging Timothy to hold the faith and a good conscience rather than imitating those who have made a shipwreck of their faith, "Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme."

Giving someone over to Satan is for remedial purposes, so they can learn to do right, not so they can be annihilated. Everyone who receives salvation was once lost, "destroyed." Not only was "being lost" no hindrance to their deliverance but it was absolutely essential to it. God has lost them and then through Christ, He found and saved them. God has definitely declared that He is the "Saviour of ALL mankind" (1 Timothy 2:4 and 1 Timothy 4:10).

Though the sinner be lost a thousand times, he is not beyond the reach of the Great Seeker. Notice that the shepherd searches for the sheep, not for any specific finite period of time, but until he found it! The same is true of the woman who lost the coin. She searched until she found it. Jesus came to "destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3:8) – not His own works! We are God's creation, we are NOT the work of the devil. The "devil's work" is the sin in our lives. Jesus came to 1) DESTROY the sin in our lives, but 2) to SAVE the sinner!

The story of the Potter (Jeremiah 18:1-7) reveals that it is the Potter Himself (representing Jesus Christ) who crushes the vessel when He discovers it is marred. The Potter then makes it over into a perfect vessel. But the vessel never leaves the Potter's hands during its "destruction" and re-creation into a New Creature in Christ. God holds us in His hand during ALL the time we are going through trouble – "destruction." And God does not "destroy" anything that He cannot completely restore.

"Destruction" is a passing process, not a finished goal. The old sinful nature is "destroyed" as a prelude to the formation of a New Creature in Christ. Remember God says, "Behold I make ALL new." (Revelation 21:5)

Trials and tribulations "destroy" us. They destroy our confidence in ourselves, in our own decision-making, in other human beings, in our trust in our government, in our trust in doctors, in our trust in "man's" ways.

Christians have been taught that the "destruction" spoken of in the Bible is permanent burning or annihilation. But God's interpretation of "destruction" is very different. His "destruction" is always remedial. He must "destroy" us in order for us to:

- 1) recognize our need for HIM to run our life in every aspect
- 2) become sanctified (be made holy) by Christ putting his character - His life - in us – what the Bible terms eonian life – mistranslated as "eternal" life.
- 3) become a New Creature in Christ.

Then we have truly been "born from above" (born again). We no longer want to sin. We may fail now and then but our inclination and desire to sin is gone.

This change occurs progressively, not instantaneously, as we get to know God more personally, and begin to understand things from God's point of view. Eventually, God will allow us to see, as we look back on our life, what He was accomplishing through our trouble. God may work on only one area of our life at a time, until we trust God totally in that area, such as:

Financial – we learn that He really will take care of us just as He has promised – IF we learn to TRUST Him;

Health – we learn that He really does “heal ALL our diseases,” (Psalm 103:3) but only IF we follow HIS ways and not “man’s” (the doctors’) ways. (Deut 7:11-15)

Relationships – we learn that God can heal EVERY relationship if both parties are willing to follow God’s direction. And if the relationship is irrevocably broken because one of the two will not follow God’s ways, God will carry us through the trial.

Understanding the Bible - God will open our mind so we can understand spiritual things (1 Cor 2:14). He will “show us great and mighty things that we do not know” (Jeremiah 33:3).

Understanding the Events taking place now in the world and events in the future. God will open our eyes so we can understand the events prophesied in the books of Daniel, Revelation, and in Matthew 24.

Lack of fear of the future - God tells us repeatedly to “Fear not.” But how can we do that with all the frightening things that are prophesied?

The Bible tells us,

God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God in him.

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear: because fear hath torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love. 1 John 4:17,18

When we truly fall in love with Jesus Christ, when we truly trust Christ with our own life and the lives of our children, when we truly understand that He will walk through the valley of the shadow of death with us, when we truly believe that God will supply all our needs, when we truly believe that we can lie down at night in peace no matter where we are or what is happening around us, when we understand that God loves our children more than we do and that He would never allow anything to happen to them – or us – that is not for our eventual, long-term best, then we can say:

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for Thou art with me. Psalm 23:1,4

The Time of Trouble is necessary to test us to see if we are really ready to stand for Christ, no matter what the cost. God is not interested in random violence. He will only allow us to go through the specific trials and tribulations that are absolutely necessary to purify us spiritually and make us One with Him. He will not allow us to go through one moment more than is necessary to accomplish that goal.

The only way we are safe to save – safe to live with Jesus for eternity – is if we have the character of Jesus in us, if He has put HIS life in us. That is defined as “eonian life” – the life of Christ in us. This phrase in the Greek is consistently mistranslated by the Bible translators as “eternal life.”

But “eternal life” (living forever) is NOT possible until we have “eonian life” (the life of Christ in us) – until we have been changed into the image of Jesus Christ. This does not occur in an instant. It is the result of diligent daily Bible study and prayer over a long period of time, of learning to know the Lord as our Personal friend, as our heavenly Father, and as our Savior, to know Him so well that we fall in love with Him - spiritually. He must become the Center of everything in our life.

If everyone has not been completely changed by Jesus’ leading us through the trials and tribulations necessary to build our character, purity, and perseverance, If we have not learned to LOVE our enemies, to do GOOD to those who hate us, to FORGIVE everyone who has ever wronged us, as Jesus says we must, then heaven and the New Earth would be just like this earth – filled with selfish, self-centered, deceitful, wretched people.

But as we go through all of our troubles, Jesus will never leave our side. He promises:

“I will never leave you nor forsake you.” (Hebrews 13:5)

The Exodus of the Israelites from Egypt

When God brought the Israelites out of Egypt, through the wilderness and into the Promised Land, the trip was real – it actually occurred. But it was also symbolic of God bringing us out of sin (Egypt – the Bible – is symbolic for sin), the long walk through the wilderness of our life, and eventually making us one with Him, so He can bring us to the “Promised Land” – heaven and the New Earth.

God tells us in Hebrews, Chapters 3 and 4, especially Hebrews 4:11, that this trek through the wilderness by the Israelites was to be an example for us – an example of how we should NOT behave.

The Israelites were constantly griping and complaining to Moses about their fears, their lack of water, the food (manna – from heaven! no less) that they hated, and their desire to return to Egypt (symbolic for sin). They said Moses (and, therefore, God) had brought them out into the wilderness to DIE! They didn’t believe that God could protect them from every hazard, and provide everything they needed, no matter where they were.

God specifically took them to the desert – for FORTY YEARS – where nothing could be grown for food, where there was no water, where there was no place to get new clothes or new shoes, where there was scorching heat in the daytime and freezing cold during the nights, where they could not provide ANYTHING for themselves.

Yet, for those forty years,

- 1) their clothes and shoes never wore out (Deut 29:5),
- 2) they had the most perfect vegan vegetarian diet – manna – that fell directly from heaven (Ex 6:15,31-35; Deut 8:3) and represented Jesus Christ – the true Bread from Heaven,
- 3) God brought water from a ROCK - that represented Jesus Christ. (Exodus 17:6),
- 4) God gave them a cloud cover during the day – Natural Air Conditioning and safety from the burning sun,
- 5) a pillar of fire by night – Natural Heating to keep them warm,
- 6) God personally led them through the wilderness, one day at a time. They had to look UP – to Jesus Christ – daily, every moment of every day, to see if they should stay where they were or move on. And they had no idea where God would lead them. They just has to follow the cloud – one day at a time.
- 7) There was NO “church.” The Sanctuary (tabernacle) that was in the midst of the Israelites’ camp in the wilderness was only 15 feet wide and 45 feet long, and only the priests were allowed inside. The congregation was NOT allowed inside the Sanctuary, nor were they allowed inside the outer courtyard, which was also small - 75 feet wide and 150 feet long.

The Israelites did NOT “go to church.” It is estimated that there were approximately one million Israelites (or more) in the wilderness. Not only was the sanctuary TOO SMALL for that crowd, but by God’s direct order – NO ONE but the priests were allowed inside the Sanctuary – or even into the outer Courtyard.

ALL, except the Priests, were strictly prohibited by God from entering!

It was God’s explicit Plan that there was to be NO “church” to attend for those forty years in the wilderness. Nor did God EVER want a “church” for the congregation to attend – then or now! Christianity is NOT a religion – nor a church – nor a denomination – nor a hierarchy. It is nothing more, or less, than a close, personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The Temple in Jerusalem had the same dimensions as the Sanctuary in the wilderness. The only difference is that it was a permanent building, not a moveable tent. And no one, other than the Priests, were allowed inside.

It was not until the end of the Old Testament period, and before the beginning of the New Testament period, that the Pharisees – the enemies of Christ – set up the system of synagogues, where people came in and sat down, listened to the rantings of the Priests and Pharisees, and went through a religious ritual, and called it - - - “religion.” There, in those synagogues, was nurtured the wicked, anti-Christ, “Traditions of the Elders” that Jesus strongly rebuked – the abominable heresies that later, after they murdered Jesus Christ, were written down by the Pharisees, and named the Talmud – the antithesis of Christianity – which became the basis for, and the “holiest” book of, present-day Judaism!

For four thousand years of earth’s history, there were NO “church” services for the congregation to attend.

A priest went into the “Holy Place” each day, but only the High Priest could go into the Most Holy Place, and only once a year. The Courtyard around the Sanctuary was 150 ft. long and 75 ft wide, again far too small for a congregation of one million, or even one-tenth that size, to enter. In addition, as mentioned above, God prohibited anyone except the Priests, from entering.

The Blueprints and the directions for the building of, the Sanctuary were right from God’s mouth. It was to be a physical representation of God’s Plan of Salvation, a Kindergarten sand-box illustration of God’s Plan made in a way that the Israelites, who had been slaves for 400 years, could (hopefully) understand.

During the Forty Years in the Wilderness, God provided EVERYTHING for the Israelites, yet they murmured and complained so bitterly that God repeatedly refers to that period of time as “The Rebellion.”

The Exodus of the Israelites from Egypt is an illustration for us of God’s loving care for even those who are rebelling against Him. However, the rebellious all died in the wilderness, and none entered the Promised Land. Only the faithful went directly in.

But those rebellious Israelites will be resurrected for the Great White Throne Judgment, where they will “reap what they have sown” and finally realize that Jesus Christ is their Savior and Lord.

In the time of trouble, God has promised that our bread and water will be sure. He will provide for us just as He provided everything for the Israelites in the wilderness. All we have to do is learn NOT to murmur and complain. And we must learn to truly trust in the Almighty power of Jesus Christ and His promise that He will “never leave us nor forsake us.”

I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety. Psalm 4:8

Thou wilt keep [him] in perfect peace, [whose] mind [is] stayed [on thee]: because he trusteth in thee. Isaiah 26:3

“Perseverance is more than endurance. It is endurance combined with absolute assurance and certainty that what we are looking for is going to happen. Perseverance means more than just hanging on, which may be only exposing our fear of letting go and falling. Perseverance is our supreme effort of refusing to believe that our Hero is going to be conquered. Our greatest fear is not that we will be damned, but that somehow Jesus Christ will be defeated.

Also, our fear is that the very things our Lord stood for – love, justice, forgiveness, and kindness among men – will not win out in the end.

One of the greatest stresses in life is the stress of waiting for God. But He brings fulfillment, “because you have kept My command to persevere.” (Rev. 3:10 My Utmost for His Highest, by Oswald Chambers, February 22.

So, What do we do – and Where do we go?

The ONLY safe place to hide is in Jesus Christ!
